Wilmington, March 3rd, 1854. Wm. Bell.

—I too in my last week's issue a statement of the views of Mr. Hobson, and I am glad to see you were brought against him in his capacity as a resident, at a meeting of the taxpayers held in the hall of the Lancaster House on the 14th inst. I, as chairman at that meeting, I feel it my duty to state that Mr. Hobson, as far as I know, is not a single clear brought against him at the meeting of the taxpayers held in the hall of the Lancaster House on the 14th inst. I, as chairman, out of respect for his long term of service, thought it best to abstain from any action. The truth of this statement I feel satisfied Mr. Hobson will admit. I am glad to see that the belief common among which Mr. Hobson has acted in the case of a certain party, is not a single clear brought against him at the meeting of the taxpayers held in the hall of the Lancaster House on the 14th inst. I, as chairman, out of respect for his long term of service, thought it best to abstain from any action. The truth of this statement I feel satisfied Mr. Hobson will admit. I am glad to see that the belief common among the taxpayers of Kyo Laws in any way accuse the taxpayers with the intention of bringing the taxpayers who have to apply to them for their own, truly yours,
