
The lantern appears to be too light for an exposed situation like Butcher's.

THE SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

The Surveyor reported as follows:—
As instructed I have inspected the nuisance at Quebec, complained of by Mr. Harrison, and would suggest that the present nuisance be taken up, and that the sanitary place, and cesspools for a further distance of 12 yards—on as much a way with the drainage of the sewage of the road be taken place near Lark Cottage, caused, I understand, by the workings of the Wear-

The Post Office, and asking for the same to be repaired. The matter was referred to the Surveyor. The Metropolitan Journal's Comment also sent the following letter to the Surveyor: "The footpath from Dean Bank Cottages to the bank, a distance of 200 yards, owned by Mr. Tolson, is in a very bad state of repair. The work should be carried out, and the footpath at present a footpath, should be a road." The Surveyor has promised to provide an estimate of the cost of the work.

THE APPROACHES TO THE COUNTY BRIDGES.
The Surveyor has also been asked by the Post Office to estimate the cost of repairing the approaches to the county bridges in this district. The amount is £250, as against £100 last year.

BROADWOOD BRIDGE.
A letter was read from the North Eastern Railway Company pointing out that if the work was not done, the railway would be out of use for repairing the Broadwood bridge, and they would carry out the work. The Chairman said that he would contribute £100 towards the cost of the work.

went by herself about 9.30 and stated that she was going to White-Hall, to see the sarg who was in the yard. Witness said: "The deceased promised witness that he would do anything to help, and
at it was all right."

Witness testified that he was 12 years of age, residing at 11, Railway Terrace,
Kew. On Wednesday morning, 19th 1930, he was on the footpath near to the house. Upon seeing a woman get into the ferry, he took off his hat, "an greeting." He shouted, but the woman
did not hear him. Witness said:
"Foreman: Did you go for the man?
Witness: When I shouted I attracted the attention of the man."
