INSPECTOR'S REPORT.
Inspector submitted the following memorandum to the Chairman and Members of the Town Board:
SIR, — I beg to report for the month of August, 1892. I have made a general inspection of the principal parts of your Board's district, and the various nuisances which are detailed in your report, and find that a great number of them have been either remedied or are receiving

Mr Leerick with a list of nuisances in the Weardale Iron and Coal Company's area, which they are also receiving attention. He also mentioned the following persons, viz., on the extension of drain at the bottom of the Burnley Lane Ends; on Mr Dunlop's defective trap and yard in Burnley Lane; and on Mrs Elcock to relay the channery in Grove Road.

St. Louis—The stagnant water in connection with Mr. [illegible] requires drainage.

High Street—Manure heaps and a street tail, Brydton's, and others, and trap in public-house yard (ward)—Trap stopped up, but appears to be in use.

Street East—Nos. 1, 2, and 3 blocks, accumulations have been carted away and requires attention, and the back street.

San Street—Defective trap and yard.

Ashpits—Ashpits are overflowing, and cleaning out.
Mill Street East—Back channel up to the mill is to be altered.
Wagon's House—Defective trap and dilapidation; but the same are now receiving repairs.
Maple Street—Ashes have been removed and the trap still exists.
Maple Street—Back channel is still in the same dilapidated condition.
Maple Street—The dilapidated condition of the channel out of ashpits and

Street South—The removing of the house fairly well attended to, but up to date the manure heaps still remain.

Street North—The recommendation to raise privy boxes has been complied with.

Street—The resolution arrived at last week of the house in Harrison Street is now in effect.

Yours obedient servant,
WM. GARRAY

CONSETT COUNTY COURT.

— Defendant acknowledged carrying the machine to Blackball Mill, but as it did not belong to Mr. Ward, he (defendant) took it back to Buller's three days afterwards. Buller then handed the machine to a boy for new establishment, and this led to a new drop, and it was broken.—By Mr Welford Ward did not refuse to accept the machine

him, because it was then broken.—
Ward asked for an adjournment for the purpose of Mr Ward, but the Judge decided —suit plaintiff.

APPLICATION FOR AN ADMINISTRATION ORDER.
JAMES JOSEPH DIMMICK, West Victoria Street.
—Debtor (represented by Mr Welford Ward) applied for an administration order of his affairs as a majority of his creditors refused to cooperate to his offer. His Honour stated that he consented to the application.

WENFIELDSIDE SCHOOL BOARD.

On Wednesday afternoon, the ordinary meeting of the Board was held in the Benfieldside Educational School.—Mr. Wm. Telford (chairman) presided. The other members present were Mr. James Ross-Lewis and E. W. Jenkins; Messrs. J. W. W. Ramsey, and the Clerk (Mr. E. G. E. E.).

THE CHAIRMAN AND MR. JENKINS.

At the outset, the CHAIRMAN enquired if Mr. Ross-Lewis intended to withdraw the remarks he made at the meeting of towards him (Mr. Telford) at a previous meeting?

MR. JENKINS refused to withdraw the objectionable remarks; and the business of the Board was put off until next week.

NO ATTENDANCE OFFICER'S REPORT.

ing to the schools being closed during the week, the attendance officer (Mr A. McKean) gave no reports.

APPOINTMENT OF ANOTHER TEACHER.

It was agreed that Miss Robertson, of Nairn, should be appointed an assistant mistress in the department, to commence her duties after the holidays.

THE MEASLES EPIDEMIC.

The Clerk reported the result of the committee's interview with Dr Geo. Ranton, Medical Officer for the district, for the purpose of learning when the case could be re-opened. The doctor stated that it would not be possible to open the schools before the 25th inst. He would forward a certificate to Mr Kern when he thought that the measles epidemic was over.

loving memory of our dear mother, and beloved wife of William Robeson, Hows Gull, who died April 15th, 1888.
 Oh, yes, it is hard as the last separation
 To part with the mother that loved us so true
 The home and the heart feels a wide desolation
 At bidding our dear loved mother adieu."
