

cur.

—A
and
day
con-
more
and

case
son,
the royal

Co

W^e do not opinions expressed by

LONDON FR

To the Ed
Sir,—May I ask y

(1) To maintain a System, the equal rights of all, to the free use of the same.

(2) To promote the Churches now closed and the building and repairing of Churches.

(3) To revive the Wesleyan Preaching, and as necessary, succeeded by

(4) To promote the every day in the workable.

The increasing development of this Association, by all classes, has indisputably forthwith Kingdom, in co-operation.

Permit me to request willingness to become a

Any Christmas or New Year papers on the subject gratuitously, on application.
You

25, Norfolk Street, S.W.

Total :

LANCHESTER
THURSDAY, April
many and
THE GETTING
Deane's Office was having frantically 25th of February, the agent.

ASSAULT ON J.
Norfolk South was Foster, great, at Ditch that the prosecutor was

which the former took magistrates thought Court. The prisoner Dipton, on the 25th inand struck him on the again assaulted, got the arrested a great distur-
on prosecutor to come
he declined to do so.
prisoner belonged to character, having been offences. He was fined DRESS AND

James Flinn, a young man, was charged with being the 14th man. He was

FAMILY

Mary Teedholt, a young woman, was charged with the property of William Teedholt. In taking the prosecutor informed deserted him, and then carry away the property, and harboured his fugitive. On the stated that his wife informed that he (she) had turned off his (her) furnace fuel with. I back again, made his negotiates thought it a lot of needless trouble however.

Parliament

In the HOUSE of reply to the Duke of
 By Company had
 the proposals of the Go Marquis of Chanc
 the sale of that charge number of human sy
 and dissenting place
 received grant out of paid to Maynooth Coll Russell then asked
 per cent, adding to in the report of Lord W of Lord Lonsdowne in number of such peers. Earl stated that the bill limited the creation of life peerages to one annually. He advised to sit in the House of Lords to have the advice of notice in the legal profession. He stated that the law business of the House that the creation of life peerages was a hereditary peerage, which would last for two hundred years. The House would come with all the law thought that the emendation was too narrow,

and as to numbers,
the majority of the bill, which was to alter the constitution, said that the Liberal Unionists were committed to the bill, and it was passed. Earl Stanhope said he thought that if it was subjected to stringent restrictions it would pass. Lord Colchester then read a first time motion for the bill to amend the Law relative to the representation of representative peers for Scotland.

In the Commons Mr. Ayrton said when the period of his absence was over he would ask the question when the Chancellor resumed his resolution in the House on Monday next. Mr. Ayrton said that there must be some alteration of the time for the consideration of the proposed amendments after the Budget.

motion for going into C moved that in the equi
and diplomatic appoint petition. Mr. Fawcett
of considerable length.
quer said that under the appointments could not been, member would not
said that if the motion place many members in Fawcett would withdr ported the motion. Mr
could only make mere the motion. The House then was told by a Richmond called attention to the factory condition, and in which for every pound in wages, three pounds were sent. He thought that the securities, &c., be understood the loan, and in the society, and report from a firm basis. He did not he prevented going into was to give publicity, Mr. Richards desired, writer. The subject went into Committee's was asked on account of discussion counsel, in stone, and Mr. Dixon's matter posed. The brought up, and leave resolution of the committee to bring in a bill for it. The Attorney General into the Beverley and by Sir L. Park, but Hugessen obtained by Jews relating to trade tinctures obtained leave law relating to Post Office Announcements, and

In the House of Commons a bill for the law of copyright. A bill for and against the

In the Commons, in reply to a question, Mr. Gladstone said that several bills and illness, and no d

to meet such cases, b
be taken by the Bish deed the right rev. P sideration. In reply

