THE
RT. HON. JOHN BRITAIN, M.P.
HOME RULE.
BIRMINGHAM, February 26th, 1872.

MY DEAR O'DONOGHUE,

It is said that some persons engaged in the causes of the County of Kerry have spoken me as an advocate of Home Rule for Ireland.
I hope no one has ventured to say anything
so absurd and untrue.

If I have been taken by any one of my authority in this County, I shall be glad if you will object to it.

To have two Legislative Assemblies in the United Kingdom would, in my opinion, be an intolerable mischief, and I think no serious advocate of Home Rule would propose it.

man can wish for two within the limits of the present world, and the United Kingdom who does not wish the United Kingdom becomes the nations, entirely separate from each other.

I am, Yours very truly,
JOHN BRIGATE.
