DUNDEE CORN MARKET, Wednesday.—The advance and supplies were moderate. Wheat is to 2s 6d dearer, but sales slow. Barley and oats 6d per bush, but also a slow sale. Beans unchanged.

GLASGOW CORN MARKET, Wednesday.—Imports moderate. The market was well attended. A large business has been done in American wheat during the week at an advance of 1s to 1s 6d per qr. Holders to-day asked a further advance, which checked sales. Barley and oats steady. The fine quality of beans was rather dearer. Flour and the new tariff increase caused some opposition. The average beef comprised 1,048 head. Excepting the best donations of both steers and heifers, which were in good demand, and moved freely off at full currencies, all other kinds experienced a slow sale, at about 3d per stone reduction from the rates of this day so'nlight, and various Irregular, with a very dull finish, and part remained unsold. The number of sheep and lambs was 7,640. The wool trade was less active to-day than on Tuesday last, prices receded about 3d per lb from the rates of last week, with a middling finish, and a total clearance was effected. Lambs, the demand for which varied considerably, the better class were in good demand, and sold readily.

EDINBURGH CATTLE MARKET, Wednesday.—The supply of cattle was larger, and the trade excessively dull, at all prices, with a number unsold. The supplies of sheep and lambs were also large, the trade being more in favour of the buyer, with part left. Top price of best beef, 9s; canners 8s 6d per stone. Mutton, 5id per lb. Lambs from 4s downwards. Store sheep and lambs in demand.

NEWCASTLE AUGUST FAIR.—This fair was held on Tuesday on the COWLEY at which there was an unusually small show of cattle of every description, which, however, greatly exceeded the demand. In the early part of the day some of the best lots of cattle, for early feeding, found buyers at prices lately realized; but after the few trans-have been sold at prices realized of late; but of these was almost a total absence. Nearly the entire supply in class of animals was of the most inferior description and were unobtainable almost at any price. The fair may be characterized in every respect as almost the worst ever within the memory of the oldest frequenters.
