 the ferry platform, by which about 600 friends and sympathizers went to Sandeague. On board the impressive funeral service of the Church, conducted was presided over by Rev. Mr. Hunt, of the town.

WOLSHINGHAM.
 DEER DEATH.—On Monday night, an elderly woman named Mary Mink, living in Middlebury, died of heart disease. She was 60 years of age, and a most amiable and useful woman. She was a member of the church, and her death is a great loss to the church and to the community.
