MONDAY, August 20th. — Before W. B. VAN
HAASEBROUCK, Esq. (in the chair), and
H. W. WATSON, Esq.

DRUNKENNESS.
George Telford was summoned by Sergt. Tate for having been drunk and disorderly in Derwent Street, Blackhill, on the 6th and the 12th days of August.—Fined 5s and costs in each instance.
Margaret O'Toole was proceeded against by the same officer for having been intoxicated in Derwent Street, Blackhill, on the 7th inst.—Defendant denied the charge, alleging that she had a dispute with another person respecting some poultry.—Fined 2s 6d and costs.—Defendant: I'll pay it in three fortnights. (Laughter.)—The Bench: No, in a fortnight.

which him ought to have been forewarned.—Mr. Grant: That is not included in the summons. You cannot sue for that.—Mr. Rippon concluded that the question was involved in the same case.—Abraham Mason, overman, repeated the testimony adduced at the previous court.—In reply to Mr. McCartan, wit-
