LOCAL NOTES BY "PHIZ."

"A Cricketer" sends me the following:—"Dear 'Phiz,'—In your last issue you have a little paragraph devoted to cricket, in which you state that Bensfield-side Cricket Club sustained a great loss when Mr. Freek left the district. I have made diligent inquiry amongst cricketers as to who this Mr. Freek is; but no one being able to tell me I have taken the liberty to write to you asking for the desired information. I am sorry to give you so much trouble, but your answer will settle a great many disputes. I am well acquainted with several gentlemen of the name of Frank, both in and out of the district and, having a pretty good knowledge of their several capabilities as cricketers, I am at a loss to know as to the identity of the cricket-player Freek." I cannot conceive how the name came to be printed Freek. It should have been Mr. H. R. Foggon, who was for many years connected with the Cricket Office.

years connected with the Coast Guard.
