Mr. H. H. H. : We have not made any agreement towards the park fence.

Mr. H. H. H. : I thought the Council had ever done so.

Mr. H. H. H. : I think not.

Mr. H. H. H. : We are of opinion they should contribute towards the work.

Mr. H. H. H. : Will you sign the cheque for £100?

Mr. H. H. H. : I would have no objection.

Mr. H. H. H. : Animate pointed out that the one of the cheque would be the one the Council would sign.

Mr. H. H. H. : The auditor would not sign the cheque for the work.

Mr. H. H. H. : A motion was proposed by Mr. P. H. H. that the Council should be applied to, and that the Council agree to the application.

Mr. H. H. H. : We got, three votes for the motion.

The most delicious and nutritious of confections far less consumed than it would be were it not for the fact that it is so easily obtained under the name of chocolate. Every cake of chocolate bears the name of Cadbury's guaranteed to consist of pure Cocoa and where purity and our own quality are given children with perfect safety. Chocolate is taken by special appointment to the Queen.

THE UNEMPLOYED IN EAST LONDON

A time when much thought is being given to the unemployed in London, it is well to remember that last year, more than £200,000 worth of free lunches were purchased by inconsiderate consumers who did not think of the suffering and the cost to the people, as true it is that "evil is wrought if thoughtless men do evil." It is well to remember that thought, as well as want of heart. If we can only get the unemployed to work for their meals, that firm would be enabled to pay £15,000 per week more in wages, and large numbers of the unemployed could be put to work, instead of swelling the ranks of idleness.
