CATTLE MARKETS.—Chicago, December 10.—The arrivals from this country consisted of 27 head of cattle from Aberdeen and 10 from the north-east coast of Scotland, 67 head of Hereford, and 240 heifers and 240 pigs from Ireland. The above of stock presented for sale exhibited on the 10th of 151 horses, and 900 sheep as compared with that of the week.

Exporting quality, that of cattle varied very much, apparently speaking, were scarcely a seasonal affair, but when the weather was mild.

A supply of feed comprised 1,000 head. The summer stock seasonably in the barns, and the buyers were to be clear-handed for Christmas.

Weeks passed the best trade to be in a sluggish state, although prices did not recede to any notable extent, and the tendency was in favor of the buyers, a few of which.

A number of sheep was 7,600. The market was inactive, at a decline of 10¢ per lb. from the rates of a day or night, with a slow fall from the rates in butchers, and part were driven away to the north.

At 10¢ were shown. The pack trade was low than on Tuesday last, without any material change in value, and a fair good clearance was effected at the Swiss cattle—At the quarantine house 67 head were yesterday. There were some very good heifers on sale, generally speaking, there was a killing off in it, and the demand was by no means lively. The prices ran from 7c. to 7½ cts. per stone. Four head of cattle sold unsold.

A Christmas market will be held next week. When shown—Bovista, 1,000; sheep, 7,600; pigs, mature cattle, 120.
