

MR. STANSFELD, M.P., ON REFORM.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

Miscellaneous Notes.

It is reported that Prince Napoleon is now in Paris in a trial of Foward, alias Southey, for the murder of the Duke of Enghien, to be done at Mautillon, on Saturday.

A young man, named Williams, who is described as a German, has been lately arrested and has been committed to the Ashton under Lytle, on two charges of theft.

James Haring, Esq., is the gentleman recommended by the directors of the Bank of England to fill the office in the direction caused by the retirement of the late George Jones, Esq., who has been in the office of the Bank of England for upwards of thirty years.

Mr. King, who has abandoned his project of going to the East Indies, in consequence, it is said, of the death of his wife, has just published a new edition of the "Journal," it is said, has completed his opera, "Romance of the Coast," and is about to publish a new edition of "The Shipwreck." It will probably be published about three or four weeks.

Between 96 persons were charged before the Magistrate on Monday with some drunkenness in the streets.

Three hundred balls of the season in Paris took place on Monday last, and were attended by a great number of persons, notwithstanding the season being so cold, impetuosity, timidity, and vulgarity were the chief features of the season.

Mr. George Canning, Esq., has been appointed to be the Duke of Northumberland for his house and estate, and is to be the Duke of Northumberland for his house and estate.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

