

THE EYE AND EAR

A NEW TREATMENT.
The Eye and Ear are the most important organs of the human body, and their proper care is of the highest importance. Dr. J. C. HARRISON, of the University of London, has discovered a new and effective method of treating these organs, which has been found to be of great benefit to many of his patients. This new treatment is based on the principle of the "Electric Current," and is a most successful and reliable method of curing all kinds of eye and ear diseases. It is a most valuable and effective method of treating these organs, and is a most successful and reliable method of curing all kinds of eye and ear diseases. It is a most valuable and effective method of treating these organs, and is a most successful and reliable method of curing all kinds of eye and ear diseases.
