such enormous quantities being sold are new designs, for one would think that the popular idea had been exhausted long ago. Even such is not the case, as a glance over Cornforth's shop fully proves. There may be found a large stock of dolls, tops, games, acorns, shakers, and toothpicks. Also a great variety of beautiful albums. Everything that the heart of the smoker can be obtained at this salient, including all the best brands of tobacco. These parents who are expected to be strict should certainly favour Mr. Cornforth, for so they will find it an easy matter to fill their bags at a small cost. All kinds of literature
