the kind patronage you have bestowed upon me the many years I have been in your midst, and respectfully solicit a continuance of your support. I am informed of a movement being on foot to do me out of that patronage and support, as they thought I would not answer again. But thank God and your election

Detractors' schemes cannot me lick,
Let their broom be e'er so new;
For something might onto it stick,
That never was in a fur.
