

Christmas Festivities.

ONSETT AND DISTRICT.

Two bandit carol singers perambulated treats of Consett, and unrolled in Christmas singing several anthems, hymns, etc.

The bellringers of Christ Church (Consett), St. Mary's (Blackhill), rang peals of bells on Christmas Eve.

SKATING.—On Monday, the large ponds in vicinity, and portions of the River Derwent, were found to be in splendid skating condition, after a severe frost. The day was a capital one for skating pastime, and some hundreds of people enjoyed a merry spin on the ice, which proved to be both safe and pleasant.

On Monday whilst the members of the Consett Competition Brass Band were giving their annual concert, they favoured the patients in the Gosport Company's Infirmary with several of their selections.

It was agreed that judgment for fees and costs should be made in each instance, except in cases of this

Mr. Jones replied in the negative, intimating he was not going to bring forward the evidence now, inasmuch as he applied for a non-suit. Bench, however, had decided that he would not grant judgment, or a nonsuit, and as the evidence on the claim and defense was not yet introduced, he refused to grant the motion.
