

GRACE EGERTON AND GEORGE C.
FOR TWO NIGHTS ONLY, IN THIS DISTRICT.

stealing last. Inspector Elliott said they had been in suspicion; they had apparently all got new clothes and had not been able to obtain the evidence which he would have been forthcoming.—Discharged.

STEALING A BREAKFAST PIN.—Margaret Allison charged with stealing a breast-pin, the property of Joseph. Prosecutor did not appear. A witness said she saw the girl on the side on Saturday night, and he saw the pin on her with it.

ROBBING A SAILOR.—Mary Mureph (25), was charged with stealing £2 8s from the person of John C. Walker. Prosecutor had met prisoner in the street one night, and they had some drink together at a house, and then adjourned to a house in Hyndland.

FELONY.—Elizabeth Hughes (21), also well known to the police, was charged with stealing a pair of trousers from the property of Winifred Larkin, a clothes dealer in the city, on Saturday night last. The prisoner was taken to the police station from the outside of the shop.

obtaining goods by false pretences. The prisoner was charged with obtaining a trust of false pretences from Ralph Graham, Blamford, who appeared the prisoner had gone last Friday afternoon to the office of prosecutor, and said a Mr. Murray had been sent to the prisoner for a trust of hay. It was subsequently found that the prisoner had obtained a trust of hay from the prosecutor, and had obtained a trust of hay from the prosecutor, and had obtained a trust of hay from the prosecutor.

ANNOYING FEMALE.—Charles Nicholson, an old, about seventeen years of age, was charged with annoying females in Grainger-street, on Saturday last, for which he was fined £10.

TUESDAY.—Before C. F. HAMOND and R. HOSKINS, Justices of the Peace, at the Police Court, at 10 o'clock, STEALING LEAD.—Solomon Atkinson and Edw. Williams were charged with stealing on the 2nd of Feb. Edward Garty with receiving, knowing it to be stolen property, and they had to go on to the carriage room for bail. On being asked by the Mayor what he intended to do with them, he replied that he did not know he had any harm.—Fined 2s. 6d. for each offence, and 14 days' imprisonment.

He said that on Tuesday morning last his attention was attracted to the roof of a stable in the occupancy of the Mellon's father, adjoining a house known as the Wall, at the back part of Stockbridge, belonging to the Tyne Brewery Company. From the appearance of the building he suspected the lead had been taken off, and he made an attempt in the ground caused by its being thrown down. He succeeded in obtaining access to the stable by climbing over the wall, where he found about 13 feet of sheet lead concealed in a hole. While there the prisoner Mellon saw some hay.

officer what account he could give of the lead. I knew nothing about it; he went to bed at six nights before, and he did not rise till eight that morn-was then about ten o'clock. Afterwards the father the stable and he (the officer) inquired of him his son went to bed the preceding night, and he eleven o'clock. He then took the prisoner into William Mackie, a mason, said he knew the locato the gutter formed between the roof of the the room. The three corpses of the white men, however, it had been taken, and there were five feet of besides that produced. The weight of the was about 20 stones. His statement was corroborated by witness.—Inspector Elliott applied that the might be discharged and put into the witness the other prisoners. On this being done Atkins a week gone Monday night, about 11 o'clock, to him while standing in the Stockbridge, and a "racket of bluey"—meaning sheet lead. H arriving there, witness said it was covered over, prisoner it was no use meddling with it just the way it was. Next morning, about seven o'clock, he called him up, and they went to the stable again; they got there, Mellon took a shovel and cut up one of the pieces. They then put the piece in a bag, and went to Carty's marine store shop, and sold it for 7s., the money being divided between them. Witness then went on to say that he told Carty again, and told him if he did not get would inform the police. He got in from him, stated that 48. 6d. had been sent to him (which stood, was from Mellon's father,) accompanied quest to get out of the way. He took the mo not go out of the town. Mellon's brother th ings for him in a house in the Side, and afte three a short time, they paid his fare down whither he went last Saturday, and they ha there. Witness, however, returned to Newca d... and was accompanied by...

which it appeared that a fair price had been paid, but that he had melted it down immediately after purchasing it.—The magistrates, considering it a wholesale robbery, intimated that they would the heaviest punishment they could inflict if it was not a first offence would have sent him to prison for three months; and the charge not being sustained he was discharged.

THE WOLSINGHAM BREACH OF CASE.
Hudson v. Todd came before the Judges of Bench (sitting in Banco) on Wednesday.
This was an action for a breach of promise against a small farmer in Wolsingham. The case was tried before Mr. Justice Mellor, and for that county, when it appeared 1858, to Martinmas, 1861, when she left you that she had been delivered of a child in her brother-in-law's, where she lived three or previously. Her father was called to prove gone to the defendant, and asked him if he marry her, or what. But there was hardly of a promise of marriage except four letters put in on the part of the plaintiff as to

of the authorship of these letters, however, was in doubt. A witness was then called to the stand to produce the letters for comparison, but this varied from letters in which the defendant's name. Three of the letters were found in the envelope, which bore the defendant's name. Three of the letters were found in the envelope, which bore the defendant's name. Three of the letters were found in the envelope, which bore the defendant's name.

These two there had been a notice before to and admit, and they had been inspected before by the defendant's attorney on the ground were forgeries. The first of the four was December, 1861, and bore a post mark 22 and ran thus:—

"Dear love,—You must come to Bishop's the 31st; come to the train. Stop till I come."

given was dated 6th January, 1902, and ran:—
"Dear love,—Come to Bishop's Auckland and I will meet you there. You must come I will meet you there. From your beloved." It appeared that on the Thursday in defendant was proved to have met the public-house at Bishop Auckland. Those however, contained nothing as to marriage two letters of which no notice had been given.

The defendant's signature to the receipt be genuine was spelt with an "h," whereas

Mr. Lowfield. The parties who were

Mr. HUNNARD opposed the said that he would destroy the fishery at that Port of England and the same was the proprietors' interest. He admitted that it could only be fishery but had been exterminated by the government had no right to regulate at once.

He observed that if this or the fishery. He said the fishery, it was clear and irreconcilable between proprietors of rivers, Paines; but here. If there were once under ready ample prepared to given to the cause of the owners, permit the products, and extent, and acted after the

was accepted, he would u ould support the measu the view of the committee. Mr. B. further discussed a bill under consideration of the Military Committee of Mr. B. That an hour and a half she will be estimates of Ireland and said before the bill obtained. In lieu of Church obtained a bill of aggravation of Colonies, in the name of the Stewards. Journal at 4.

HUMBER
ACT BAN OF THE 5th December the Report of the outstan-dows :—

company in respo-Co. has been

and

on Company

To which add—
Cash in hand, Feb.

of 24. 6d. of offices, 1
 of cash on h
 of item
 to the exte
 this sum con
 in Richardso
 the value of
 and Consett
 notes and b

four items, amounting to the Bank a sum not of items to the De Valuations

ed upon by some progr
properties to Bank under the
of the real
ed to them
—this was the liquidator progress. The of the Bank's completion of
has been man are still the payment of the amount
under the comp script of the manager, and payment of
that the shel
of outstand
stated in the
of outstand
this date is :
"JOHN
"W. L.
January 5th, 1861
gements for the foregoing to submit to in instant, for
of two shillings
is the forms of documents
"W. L.
"J. A. L.
ale-street 25
February 5th

...and a crowd of the
the festivity, particu-

SEIZURE of
at the Wake dealer, Wake merison 270
human food ected by the tame procu

Miscellaneous News.

we pray for its maintenance; if by the dismemberment of the Union, let it be dismembered. There are those who think Federalism has the power and the right to deal with this gigantic evil. So be it. If we are the purpose of Providence, we shall only rejoice to know that others have good ground for the opinion that the Southern States, weakened, discovered forced through the brick work of the wall and had fallen on the road beneath. The coping up to the Regent's canal appears to have been torn away by the waggon as it was hurried along, but the bridge does not seem to have sustained any damage. Information of the mishap was immediately communicated to the Bow works, and a large number of the workpeople proceeded to the scene.

be continued until the division, and must in the division itself. The Senate, at the request of five members, may constitute itself a secret committee." Organic decree of 17-23rd Feb., 1857. "Art. 14. Every contravention of the 42nd article of the constitution, respecting the publication of the reports of the sittings in the Senate and Corps Leg-intending to be sent forward to Watlington, on a charge of stealing a coat from the Red Lion Inn, at Nettleton on the 20th of January last, at which place I had stopped one night. I was taken to the county police station Oxford, and kept there some time, when I asked paper and ink to telegraph to London for assistance to obtain legal advice, when the message was refused to

PROPOSED CHANGE IN T

16th, 1st bat. Montreal, Templemore; 2d bat. Halifax, Templemore 17th, 1st bat. Quebec, Limerick; 2d bat. Halifax, Limerick 18th, 1st bat. Secunderabad, Madras; 2d bat. Jersey, Madras 19th, Gibraltar, Parkhurst 101st, Rawul Pindoe, Chatham
102d, Madras, Chatham 103d, Bombay, Canterbury 104th, Meerut, Parkhurst 105th, Madras, Pembroke

95th, K
96th, S

Buttlevant 106th, Bombay, Birr Buttlevant 107th, Lucknow, Fermoy 19th, 1st bat. Meen Meer, 108th, Madras, Fermoy Chatham; 2d bat. Newry, 109th, Bombay, Cork

