HARTON COLLIERY.—A disastrous fire on Monday night at Harton Colliery, Shields, by which a corner block of six large houses on the east side, situated between and Young's Buildings, were completely destroyed, together with a large quantity of coal and stock. The fire broke out about 10.30, and continued burning until ten fire buildings were, notwithstanding the fire brigade, completely demolished.

men, who had just laid in a large stock of provisions. The entire damage to above £1,000. The premises were occupied by Messrs HERBERT and the SHAKERS, who have left Mr Herbert's barn at road, and have gone into the road. The loss at Messrs Herbert's barn, Mr Herbert told us on Monday morning that he was not of them to leave whilst the weather was so early hour, and not to return till at night. He did not wish to make it to the women and children. The men not accept this offer, but determined to leave the premises.

On Sunday morning of the deceased's went to see him, hearing his knock, he had burst the door open and found the deceased lying flat on his back. He appeared to have been laid down and it was much swollen. A medical officer was called and he said it was his opinion that death had been occasioned by the deceased setting into his arm, which was the internal part. A verdict in accordance with the medical gentleman's evidence was returned. The next inquest was held by the coroner on Monday at the Rock Hotel, Dr. Gier

On the morning of 10th Lishman, two months old. The deceased resided at 137, Pine Street, Newark. On the morning of the fire, Lishman, the deceased went into a bedroom to change his clothing. He was awakened by a fire, and a few minutes afterwards he went to the door to see what was about, his clothes being on fire. He was unable to get out of the room, and he died early on Monday morning. A verdict to the effect that the death was accidental.

THOMAS BURL appeared with a similar offense on the 13th inst. on which he was charged. Defendant failed to appear, was fined 10 and costs 10.

MASTER AND SERVANT.

GEORGE HALL was charged by Joseph Anderson, farmer, with breach of contract. Complainant stated that he hired defendant on the 22nd November, 1894, to work for him for one year. Defendant testified that he was quite ready to work for Mr Anderson until May-day, but no longer. — The court (to complainant): Will you take him for half-year (to complainant): Yes. — Defendant was then ordered to appear to maintain his wife.

RESPONDING TO MAINTAIN HIS WIFE.

EDWARD GEORGE WALKS, engineer, Crookwell, was summoned by Mr. W. W. Thompson, clerk to the L.

Mr Thompson testified that defendant had offered to allow his wife 10s a week, but she considered this sum was not sufficient. Defendant was earning 33s per week, and Mr Thompson thought he might allow her 12s 6d a week, but she considered this was not sufficient (he offered 5s to him, to which she consented to take 10s a week). The Chairman: Who wrote this letter?

—Mrs Waks, a respectable and modest looking woman, with a child in her arms, informed their witness that she had written the letter, and she handed the letter to her and she wrote it. He said he wanted it for some purpose. The Chairman (to defendant): Are you willing to give your wife 10s per week?—Defendant: Yes, I am willing to do so. The Chairman: Did the defendant say he was willing to give his wife an amount of 12s 6d a week, which sum Mrs Waks agreed to accept?
