

Smith's Mayflower by 2
beat Morton's Red Box

has Dr. W. Storitz's signature and our has Mark (Two Globes, Cross, and Crescent). is 14d., or for 15 stamps, of Boden Mineral Lute Company, 19, Dyer's Buildings, Holborn, E.C. 1.

TR SWEEP AT TANKFIELD.—A greyhound at rabbits (promoted by Mr Wm. Holmes) fought off in a field near the Peacock Inn.
Although the weather was bitterly cold, of 500 spectators were present. Results: round.—Donglass' Happy-Go-Lucky beat
"How had I
market.
—BOUN
for "Re
flice, but 6 ft. and

do BOTTLES, price sixpence.—To be sent JACKSON, bookbinder, 9 and 10 New
St. Cornhill.

ON RATH.—All Chemists, Grocers, or Oilmen
on RATH. To deliver out roots, mize, bottles, on RATH, mize, lard, lard, ground mize, d.t.
mize.

to ask Strathern for a loan, and
pain at the very thought
of her hour or so she knew that her surprise. Donald did not return about half-past six to the plan for the purpose of

...and back to his own room, and said he would write to this man, and not to the little woman—Murray had written to what was of mere consequences to him in this world. He had written about

...land, was much and deservedly an excellent style in which he gave it the title "A true story." The piece was given in their usual excellent style and was ably filled by Mr. H.
The National Anthem brought a closing to a close.

OPFIELD BRANCH.

do BOTTLES, price sixpence.—To be
sent JACKSON, bookbinder, 9 and 10 New
St. Cornhill.

ON RATH.—All Chemists, Grocers, or Oilmen
on RATH. To deliver out roots, mize, bottles, on RATH, mize, lard, lard, ground mize, d.t.
mize.

to ask Strathern for a loan, and
pain at the very thought
of her hour or so she knew that her surprise. Donald did not return about half-past six to the plan for the purpose of

... would write to this man, and not to the little woman—Murray had written to what was of mere consequences to him on this earth. He had written about

...land, was much and deservedly
an excellent style in which he gave
it the title "A true story." The piece
was given in their usual excellent
style and was ably filled by Mr. H.
The National Anthem brought a closing to a close.

