

ral und Mietzins etc.

er.—On Friday last the members of the Philharmonic Society

ON THE ROCKS AT REDCAR. — On the 11th inst., the Rink, of Rochester, Captain Smith, &c., from Rochester to Middlesbrough, struck on Redcar rocks, generally known as Saltcar. A succeeded in floating her as soon as the aid-

DEATHS.—Mr J. T. Hoyle, coroner on Monday evening, at the Adrian's Head Lane, upon the body of Miss Isabella Foster, who died suddenly at her residence in Haven Saturday; and also upon the body of Marjappell, the infant daughter of Robert Hyppell, of Birmingham Street, who died suddenly on Sunday. The jury returned the verdict that death natural causes.

It was held on Monday evening at the Commercial Hotel, Gateshead, before Mr. J. M. B. ...

HIGH SHERIFFS FOR 1867.—A supplement to the London Gazette, published on Saturday night, announced as the High Sheriffs of the county of Kent for the current year.—Cum gratia and James, of Barrook Park, Esq., of Maidstone; and William, of Barrook Park, Esq., of Maidstone.

Cailey, of Fowberry Tower, Esq. Northumber-Reg. of Crossings Hall, Esq. Westmore-

ARTLEPOOL.—A BUNGLER CAPTURED.
 Early morning, at an early hour, P.C. Crooks, of Artlepool police force, while on his beat in street, saw a suspicious looking character dogger jeweller's shop. The officer searched him and some matches and a piece of a candle wrapped in paper. The man gave him his name as Arthur and he belonged London, but had lately come where he had purchased a candle.

...was living in West Hartlepool. He was now

POOL.—REPORTED ROBBERY OF £200.
H. police at Hartlepool heard the report of a robbery, on Friday night, from the house of Mrs. Cragg, Olive Street, Hartlepool. Mrs. Cragg placed a bag containing the money on the mantelpiece, and retired to rest for a short time. When she discovered the bag missing, and at once called the police. She says she had drawn the £200 out lately, being only newly married, and had intended bringing it to her marriage. One of the constables at the house, who had been called the bag between a bed and mattress, but it had ninety sovereigns. It is supposed that AY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Misapprehension.—It is quite possible, and very probable, may occur in selecting the right drug from the pharmacopoeia. But Hays's medicine is beneficial in all diseases, by reason of its purgative, soothing, and healing power of the skin. It is well adapted for internal maladies as first-aid. When rubbed upon the skin, it penetrates the pores of the skin, and reaches the internal organs, over which it invariably exercises a salutary control by moderating or interpreting the stances may require. In all chronic cases it should be taken whilst his Ointment is used, then the stomach, soothe the blood, and

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.— A general meeting of the above society, held Saturday, under the presidency of Mr H. was agreed that £20 should be offered for a bull on the condition that the winning animal remain in the county forty weeks, and the prize forty guineas at 18s., and that the bull be by the owner during that period. It was at a prize of £25 should be offered for the best stallion, on condition that he should travel three days a week during the season.

entitled to compete unless his name be entered in the book. A similar prize should be given to the author of the best story.

DIFFICULTIES OF HISTORY.—Raleigh's overbold; and Peppy moralities in a similar Villiers, second Duke of Buckingham, whose in the worst inn's worst rooms" is familiar to Pope, falling into disgrace at Court, his and a warrant issued for his commitment was missing in the spring of 1667, and the Peppys, dining at Lord Crew's on the 10th, finds everybody in doubt where the Duke is:

There was a "small appearance of the country." Men's misdeeds were otherwise occu-on Monday by the Mayor. The market ling, surrounded by an iron railing, the roof columns. One end is fitted up with stone

The cost of the building is about £750. There is a great accommodation to the town. The fish are brought in above a hundred baskets of &c. Fish, which at one time was a scarce commodity, is now sold at reasonable rates. At the time was a large assembly of town councillors of the town, while the fishermen, headed by the notable "Peggy Potts" mustered in great numbers.

...the building opened, and the new school-

Afternoon an interesting ceremony took place in the room of the Northern Daily Express office, in connection with the presentation of a handsome gold watch to the manager of the establishment, who is about to retire.

The watch was supplied by Mr Garland, and was subscribed for by the employees on the staff, and the friends of Mr Barton. At the presentation, Mr Barton, editor, was in the chair, and by him Mr R. Simpson, head cashier in the office, was asked to present the watch to Mr Barton, who is about to succeed Mr Barton, handed the respected manager, at the close of a career of the high esteem in which Mr his friends in Newcastle of their own him, and expressing of their warm wishes for him. Mr. Burton made the feeling acknowledgment "Success to the Express," to which Mr. Simpson replied, "The health of the establishment was also pledged, and was responded to by the Rev. Mr. Bolcher, company adjourned to the Alexandra Hotel the felicitous incidental to such an occasion of Mr. Worth again occupying the chair, organ, owner of the printing department. The health of Mr. and Mrs. Burton was spoken.

ACCIDENTALLY POISONED AT HER-play, an interest was held at the house of of the county constabulary, before J. M. Orr, on the body of Sarah Barnshaw, aged 21, died on Friday, under the following circumstances: the father of the deceased, Thomas Barnshaw, at the Tyne Metal Extracting Works, died on Friday last by, along with another man with the same works, was trying some cyanide of potassium in his own house, the experiments, Thomas Barnshaw, care of the poison which he had been using was placed in the bottom of the closet in deceased, who was at school in the morning.

...and seeing the clear liquid in a jug she took

The jury returned a verdict that the death effects of poison which had been care-hill's way by her father, Thomas Barnner in announcing the verdict admonished deceased in very severe terms for his care- so deadly a poison within access of his monkey jacket, a pair of trousers, two pairs of shirt, two fancy shirts, three striped kerchiefs, two silk handkerchiefs, a pilot several other articles, belonging the mate of Guernsey. The prisoner was an able Tuesday morning, he went below and took an article belonging to him, not leaving a nothing for the owner to wear. Informa- the river police, and P.C. Chapman went search of the thief. Thinking that he the Leith boat, he went down to the Quay- and sailed. While walking about the officer priated as seeing a young man, advancing the robbery. He denied it, but growing a advised, and told the officer where she was taken into custody.

ajesty was opened on Tuesday morning 1 person.

