

Foreign Intelligence.

15071A

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

It is a person of his sort who, in the past, has been the cause of the trouble between the United States and the Dominion of Canada. The trouble has been caused by the fact that the United States has been unable to get the Dominion of Canada to agree to the terms of the 1842 Convention, which provided for the settlement of the boundary between the two countries. The trouble has been caused by the fact that the United States has been unable to get the Dominion of Canada to agree to the terms of the 1842 Convention, which provided for the settlement of the boundary between the two countries.

AMERICA.
SSION OF SOUTH CAROLINA

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

APPALLING RAILWAY DISASTER

[illegible][illegible]

Miscellaneous Items.

The sale of the Linerick and Castle Creek¹¹ Railway to the Great Southern and Western Company of Ireland has been agreed to.

Barrow Church, Wexford, was consecrated at the close

The number of vessels at present belonging to Whitley is 67, of $200,000 value.

Mr. J. Sandeford is about to resign the command of Albatross. Mr. R. Alvey and Mr. W. Codrington are men-

It is said, in the forthcoming session a bill will be proposed for the purpose of enabling Volunteer corps to obtain the services of officers in Her Majesty's regular army as consultants.

The sides of the Warrior are what may be termed upright, but we have reason to believe that her builders are correct in the regular principle, which was tested last August, at Portsmouth, by Captain Hawley, of the Resolute—Army and Navy Gazette.

His new grandiose house, which is ordered to be built at Haidi. The length of two of them are already laid, and a portion of their frame is position. The remaining forty will be laid down immediately the blocks have been prepared for them.

Early on Saturday morning, a fire broke out on the premises No. 8, Mark Lane, London. The premises of Messrs. Storey were destroyed, and the effects of Messrs. P. H. and J. Storey, general merchants, Messrs. Wilson, iron merchants, and others, were severely damaged. The close

[illegible]

PROSECUTION ON CONVICTION.—On Friday, January 15th, the continuation of the prelates and clergy of the province of Cante-bury was prosecuted in the Jerusalem Chamber, Westminster, by Mr. Tappin Twiss, the vicar-general of the province, under a commission from the lords of the Council, to the effect that the said vicar-general should prosecute the said prelates and clergy in the said Jerusalem Chamber, with all Wednesday.

Mr. J. Dyke, Mr. Maynor's proctor, having read the indictment as presented the proceedings were brought to a close.

REPORTED BY A KANSAS CITY NEWS MAN.—A fatal explosion occurred at the village of Lexington, Mo., last night. On the farm of Mr. Hulse, a steam thrashing machine was in use, and it is believed that the front had caused the feed roller to come supplying water to the boiler of the engine. Mr. Beggitt, of Lexington, is the East Riding, one of the owner of the engine, was killed on the spot; another man had his skull so severely fractured that he died some afterwards; and four others were greatly injured at a single explosion.

POWERS.—Mr. Wallace, railroad contractor, of Brighams, was spotted on Friday night, Jan. 4th, in placing a quantity of dynamite in a hole under a pig's foot. A pig was then destroying game sold that day in the habit of holding themselves in the pig's foot, he at the same time holding the powder fast in one hand and a light in the other, when a spark ignited the powder in the flask, and it exploded. Mr. Wallace's hands were fearfully lacerated, one of his limbs only hanging by a piece of skin; his cheek was cut from the eye to the jaw, and his face otherwise severely injured. He was taken to the hospital at Brigham, and will probably recover.

Wreck of the STEAMER KINGDOM.—LOSS OF BRITISH STEAMER.—The steamer Kingdom, 300 tons register, and lately belonging to Messrs T. Wilson, Sons, and Co., of Hull, has become a total wreck, it is supposed on either the 25th or 26th inst., off the coast of the Orkney Islands, on Göteborg for London. Assume of the ship's papers, and a board with Kingdom painted on it, have been picked up by the crew of the ship, the 25th of December, being due to London on the 30th. She did not, however, arrive, and as nothing has been heard of her, it is presumed that Kingdom has been wrecked, and that the crew are missing. No news, has yet reached, all perished. It is not known whether she had passengers on board. She belonged to a Göteborg firm.

from the premises and was removed to the police station. Mr. Mustard, who was not present, was called to the station about 10 o'clock and told that the man who had been shot was lying in a room in the building. He went to the room and found the man lying on the floor, apparently dead. He called the police and they arrived about 11 o'clock. The man was taken to the hospital and died about 12 o'clock. The police are looking for the man who shot him. They believe he is a member of the same gang that shot the man who was killed in the street on Monday night.

Richard Barker, 37, of 177 W. 17th St., and was sent to the County Jail for 12 months. Barker was charged with the same offense as the woman, but the judge, in view of the fact that Barker had a previous record, sentenced him to 12 months. Barker was charged with the same offense as the woman, but the judge, in view of the fact that Barker had a previous record, sentenced him to 12 months.

A MAN KILLED
On Monday morning at Asbury's Royal Arms, the whole of the lions, den, which occupies a quarter below eye level, was the scene of a quarrel between a lioness and a lion, which was the cause of the lioness's death. The lioness was shot by a man named Thomas, who was the owner of the lions.

Dr. John T. Harlan, of Belknapville, lodge, the committee on the charge of the grand jury, Thursday, January 18. The charge was read and held to have been committed on the 27th of December, 1901, by the grand jury of the county of Allegheny, by Dr. H. Hill of the Oxford circuit, who stated that five years ago, the defendant became a widower, and was left with a young daughter, who was very complainant amongst many other kind offices, took her to the city of New York, and there, at a certain time ago, the defendant was again married, and he subsequently entertained an idea that Miss Gileman had been seduced by him, and that she was the mother of the child. On the 27th day, the defendant wrote to Miss Gileman, expressing satisfaction that his wife and daughter were dead, and that he was now free. The letter stated that the latter had not whored her love for

[illegible][illegible]

