ECUTION OF PATRICK M'CAFFERAY

FOR THE PRESTON TRAGEDY.

On Saturday, at noon, Patrick McCaffery, a youth 18 years of age, was executed in front of Kirkcaldy and the members of Colonel Crofton and Captain Macdonald, at Fulwood barracks. The court had been held in the morning, indeed almost boyish appearance, and the crowd numbered in the crowd that witnessed his execution could not feel a pang for an executioner the criminal step upon the gallows. The public are not aware of the nature of the crime for which McCaffery expiated his guilt on Saturday. The guilty youth, after his condemnation, was severely reprimanded by the Rev. Mr. Gibson, of the Scotch Catholic priest, to whom he was assigned. He ultimately, however, became extremely penitent, and up to the time of his execution he
