

A posthumous appointment at Portsmouth on Monday for His Majesty's ship Victoria, for the the captain, and the two men were talking to the captain. The business was the work by one of the corporals. After been placed on the captain the horton fall and want to keep him steady on the top of the The ship was very steady. Smith was on the the hour during the afternoon watch, but not on that day. Knew nothing of Smith being wound. On the first day, Smith was on the of expressing himself and saying the best of his professional brethren entertained with regard to his very long professional services. They felt the election of Mr. Ingledew to the chair he now occupies had received a worthy complement, and that that in the whole profession there was well qualified, by long experience and services, professional knowledge, and high integrity, to fill the post he now occupied (applause). Mr. Hodg-boots and baiders, who are recommending the stupidity to a dozen new employers, sitting others, who are perfectly satisfied with it, made no complaint. We believe that this is the inevitable result of the day past, come, because they flow downwards in a stream, architects to the public, and the delicate the public do not allow them to go. The constant principle of your English was pronounced. Mr. Bellows afterwards returned to his country with his children, and came to the House of Lords to obtain a divorce, and obtained the necessary judgment in India, and the evidence owing to the enormous expense attending in the House of Lords, Mr. Bellows was compelled to abandon the suit, and to return to his country.

ing which prevented the working in a safe manner. This could be remedied by removing the lake. This was done, and it might be done at less expense. Some had apprehensions from the lifting out of water from the underground and got fully into that part of the work. It would constitute a liability; be, the danger in this case the condition of the high water.

Mr. TAYLOR said it was at least, He could not be promoted if he was not in position in which he stood (applause).

The meeting then separated.

person who originated the he would live to see it succeed. In any case, it would be mainly of course, which was carried by some which he had very much from it individually, but he district. From the public ly hoped he would succeed

[illegible]

NEW ZEALAND.
FILE OF MORTUARY. - 1890.

The most brilliant and desperately contested action yet recorded in the annals of New Zealand was fought on the 6th November, at Māhutaahi. On one side were arrayed the Waikato, resolved to win the day 4th Lieutenant Colonel C. Sillery, D.G.M.G.

4th Regiment—E. M'Kay, slightly, slightly Capt. — Captain Turner, severely; Sergeant J. severely; R. Dorman, very severely; T. Cude severely; P. Connolly, severely; W. Gibson, D. McElreath, severely; W. C. Gray, R. Whitlow, severely; G. Wilms, severely; J. Lacey, dangerously; Corporal W. Roberts, Volunteers—J. Ward, slightly; R. Langley, W. Vereco, slightly; T. Veale, slightly.
Following are the casualties of the natives as far as known:—Killed (including the head of the party), 25; wounded, 45; taken, 7; 1; total, 36; killed (found in the high forest of the island), 11; forming a total of 45 killed on the summit, and 1 prisoner. The three chiefs of the are brought into town for burial; the rest were of the field.

the Lord decrees that I terminate my terrestrial peacefully in my country, and if, which I entreat of Him on my knees, my tender and wise shall survive me, this paper is to be delivered immediately after my death. Whatever she ment the same shall be observed the same that need for the King my deceased father, shall take place at the cathedral of Berlin if neighbourhood of Berlin; but if I die in the vicarism it shall be solemnized in the church of St. Louis.

"The termination of my life shall have no effect on the physicians, there shall be sent gold to the cathedral, in accordance with my own custom every time that I receive the altar at Easter. The same sum shall also be disposed of the other churches which I have founded, for their poor; that is to say, the church of St. Elizabeth, the church of the Holy Spirit, the parish church of Erdmannsdorff, the church of St. Spandau, the evangelical church of Fischelbach, the church of the Oratoire of Paris."

defence of the integrity of the German his first duty. His Majesty said that

ORAL BOTTLER CANCERS.—Within the last few years oral cancer has been found to [illegible][illegible][illegible] implements of within very easy

at this moment

agitation begins to abate. The American ministry tells the Prince of Carignano that the Italian government is not concerned with the question of the Papal States, but is only interested in the restoration of the Papal States. The American ministry also tells the Prince of Carignano that the Italian government is not concerned with the question of the Papal States, but is only interested in the restoration of the Papal States.

3s. a day as the value of labour, the annual saving to the nation was even then £2,000,000 a year. About half-

[illegible][illegible]

There like wicked old men I have,
 with the children's voices...

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

