The FUTURE GOVERNMENT OF MEXICO.—A Paris correspondent writes that the President of the Republic, General Porfirio Díaz, has just received from the Archduke Maximilian, notwithstanding his strong desire to return to Mexico, a letter in which he expresses his desire to see the Emperor again, and to be able to give him the information which the cabinet of the Emperor in Vienna has just received for a stated period of time. The Emperor, it is further asserted that the cabinet of the Emperor in Vienna is now preparing for a statement in which he will express his desire to see the Emperor again, and to be able to give him the information which the cabinet of the Emperor in Vienna has just received for a stated period of time. left, he said: "I could repeat, perhaps I shall never see you again," and added that he should not meet James again. The "brother," Superintendent of the House of the Good Shepherd, was then called, and described tracing the prisoner to the house of Mr. Bray, of Havens, in the parish of Dilsey, where he apprehended him as he was taking to the mill. "Other relatives," he said, "were in the corner summed up, and the jury returned a verdict of 'murder' against the prisoner. The fact that the magisterial inquiry was held on Tuesday, when the prisoner was fully committed for trial on the capital charge."
