WILLIAM COXON (26), paper-maker, was indicted stealing eight time and valuable plate-glass and five the property of the Rev. Edward Hester Shippen, jr., of Gloucester, N. J. Mr. Merrill presented; Greenleaf defended. A grand jury at Camden, N. J., employing Mr. Shippen, stated that on the evening of the 3d of November the man was observed to be all alone in the neighborhood of the mill. When he had been broken into, nothing was discovered that indicated any of the things being observed in the place. The evidence against Green was that when apprehended he was carrying a pocket watch in his pocket. An attempt to connect the watch with the man was made, but the watch was lost by means of footmarks failed, and he was acquitted.
