(C) RESOLUTION TO STAND. OUT.

volving an important principle, has arisen at South Medonsley Colliery, near Dighton. It appears brooked—that every man who went to seek employment at the colliery was duly warned of the consequences entailed, not only to themselves, but to the working man throughout the country. They had summation in store for a long time (hears) but the shorter the better. They wanted no feeling, no sentiment, but they were determined that at this point they should put their foot down at once. When the sliding scale had cost thousands of pounds, and had taken the best brains and power of both workmen and employers—such men as Dale, Morton, Lindsey Wood, Johnstone, and

The church has a membership of seventy, with considerable number of adherents. By its energies both church and manse free from debt. The rever. gentleman was an ardent promoter of any good public cause or charity, and his death will be a felt loss to the district as well as the church. He leaves a widow.

The average weekly takings of the Stanhope and Weardale Industrial and Provident Co-operative Society for the quarter ending with 1885 were £145 10s 10d, against £117 10s 3d for the corresponding quarter of 1884.

IN—FOR THE TEETH AND BREATH.—A dash of the liquid "Floriline" sprinkled on a brush produces a pleasant lather, which cleanses the teeth from all parasites or infestations. It cures, prevents tartar, stops decay, and restores the teeth to their original fragrant condition. It removes all offensive odour arising from decayed teeth or mucus. "The Fragrant Floriline," being composed of Honey and sweet herbs, is delicate and the greatest toilet discovery of the age. Sold, by all Chemists and Perfumers. Wholesale, at 33, Farringdon Road, London.
