SAULT. — John Johnson was charged the complainant, Mr. H. Marshall, jun., for some change for liquor. Willey is the son of Sidle, who keeps a public house at Cornhill and had broken a glass, for which he was cited. This he refused to pay. Willey interfered, began, in which complainant had his hair pulled and his finger bitten. For the defence, it was moved that the parties had been the first offence. The Bench then stopped the misadvised charge of assault.—The question then gone into. Johnson was charged with Willey's watchguard, but as the complex swear that defendant broke it, the charge was dropped. Mr. Marshall applied for costs, but the Bench, finding each party was in fault, refused the application.

TRESPASS IN SEARCH OF GAME.—William Consett, was charged with trespass in search of game on the property of the Crown. The Bench found the charge proved, and ordered the defendant to pay costs.

DICKINSON. Mr. Compton appeared to case was proved by John Walker, an oculist who stated that one day he found several put out of gear. He rose early the next to the field, and after waiting a short time he found about half past five o'clock and a Witness then stepped up to him and told two or three more to put right. He was to identify the man. For the defence, d with damaging some wheat, the property of the defendant, by running through a field at Barga, where wheat was laid at it. The case was brought more to punish the defendant than others than to punish the defendant, including the is. damage.

Top, on the 4th of July. Mr. Compton complainant, and Mr. Briggs for the defense. It was testified that some quarrel existed between the two men, and that Carr came into the house and assaulted the witness, striking her over the head. A witness, Mr. present during the whole time, proved that Carr followed Carr into the house. Several other witnesses called, whose evidence was a tissue of contradictions. Kelly proved clearly that some of the

7.—The Paris papers publish the following at Constantinople, July 7:—
Our correspondents from Tiflis to the 21st ult. have received news of an insurrection in Abkhaz, and the Georgian provinces of Guria, Samtskhe, and Imeretia, with 200 soldiers, had been handed over to Zakatali.
The Abkhaz had been completely routed, and the advance movement was made. The result now seems favourable to Russia.
