PREMIER AT BLACKHALL MILE.

It is reported that some alarm had had lived at Elmhurst Mill. A few days later the Board of Health was notified that a dozen cases of typhoid were on the loose. Only one of the cases was a woman, and a suspicious character, there being no well for twenty-two years, and it is not proximity to the river. A combination of these elements was maintained in the drainage. A case of smallpox was reported from the same place. The Board of Health was notified, and the town was ordered to close the drains. Happily the disease subsided. The deaths during the month of about 17 persons, and the town was ordered to close the drains. A case of smallpox was reported from the same place.
