HINTS FOR THE HOME.

A man must ask leave of his stomach to be happy.

Salt fish of any kind is quickest and best freshener by cooking in sour milk.

Fish may be scaled much easier by dipping into boiling water about a minute.

Rice tomatoes will remove ink stains from your cloth and also from the hands.

How to Stop Hiccoughs.—Dr. Dreesch, a French physician, says that hiccough may be immediately cured by suffering the sufferer to close the external auditory canals with his fingers, exerting a certain amount of pressure.—That is, stick his fingers in his ears at the same time that he drinks a few sips of any liquid, the glass or cup being held to his lips by another person.

Ma Memoriam.

DEATH OF MR WILLIAM O. FORSTER.

The sudden death of Mr. Wm. Oly. Forster, of Worcester, son of Mr. James Forster, of West Stanley, has cast a gloom over this district where the family are widely known and respected. It appears that the deceased gentleman, who was a victim to the scarlet fever epidemic there, became a fortnight ago, and an affection of the brain resulted in apoplexy, rendering the best medical aid, and all that could be done in careful medical attention, he gradually succumbed to the attack on Sunday, the 21st inst., at the early age of 25 years. Mr. Forster served his apprenticeship with Messrs Butterell and Roche, of Standish, near Loughborough, and passed the examination of the Incorporated Law Society.

him, he took charge of their Newcastle home by arrangement, where by his rare ability, strict attention to business, and conscientious conduct, he secured a very high reputation, and his life was greatly felt. He was of a kind and genial nature, and his cheerful and unassuming ways, feelings, and beloved by everyone who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. A career of much usefulness and high esteem had been his, and his genuine sympathy is evinced throughout the obituary notice, and his noble behaviour. Mr. Foster's remains will be brought to Newcastle on Friday evening, and interred in Beachcroft Church. The funeral was a large and impressive one, and was attended by a large number of friends, and neighbours, and numerous ministers in the neighbourhood. The remains were accompanied by many sweet flowers, and many beautiful flowers. The burial service was read by the Rev. J. C. Fennell, and Mr. John Chaffey acting as organist.
