WAKING AGAINST FRAUD.

Recently furnished came astonishing evidence from suffering, and the list is innumerable. The fame of the miracles soon seems to have spread, and the fact of some of these who have been restored and enjoyment of life would appear unless they came from the lips of the able feeling after as there used to be now to cook a dinner and enjoy it affluent in less than a week after I began to eat. I could not do it for five years stronger altogether. I was able to walk miles, whereas before it was as much as to chapel and back. Dr. Williams' has done me a power of good, and I shall be glad to say so for those who are chemists, of St. James' Street, Burnley, and with Mrs. Utley's case, and her reputation of Dr. Williams' Pink cure is growing every day. They prove that it is a cure in which there is no falter and never recedes, which they cure neuritis, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, nervous headache, nervous stiff tired feeling resulting therefrom; dyspepsia, indigestion, in the blood, such as chronic erysipelas, etc., and contribute to the glow of health, and are the troubles peculiar to the female sex.

They effect a radical cure in all mental worry, overwork, or excessive stress.

"In the morning of life, in the opening of day Our lovely young flower was taken away To the regions of bliss, with bright angels so fair,
We hope we will meet there, her glory to share, How pleasing to father her beautiful frame, How sweet to her mother the sound of her name.
On earth more endearing we think,
That she should be so young and so fair."
