

IMPORTANT TO FAMILIES.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

Hans regarded "Punch" as a national and the attempt ought to be discarded.

— Mr Bass said he had no objection to the hall. - Mr Bass observed that the street music were the scullery maids, who out of the windows sang and whistled.

[illegible]

and to so try to overturn would be elected in the and he would hold himself in a telegram, to oppose movement had done all they it perfectly well. The foreign power, and sooner gent, they would go to war, gentlemen who compared the go to war sooner than (hear, hear.) He trusted; but advocate as he advocate for peace at any try to uphold the national here were the only ques.

the Chairman report progress.

had the honor of serving the late Adolphus Yates on occasion to differ from him, but determined that when — when he could do so without becoming a candidate for the community had occurred, and when in presenting himself to many of the towns in the town received with the pleasure, and had, indeed, of the Liberator of the place of the chiefs of the Tory one of sympathy and good-nature—(hear, hear)—

Next, I have a brief comment on some by politics. He shipped the interest of ship-owners and of the scribblers—and according to his discretion—towards the interests of the nation. He was glad to have it so. Though he was going, over tomorrow, he felt there were some things in that contest plot place he was they had done that he was glad of opposition, and forward a candidate he would like, and he was con- sidering he would still be in the contest.

Williamson, Mr Cooper Ables, of Sumner Patrick, of Durham, arrived from Durham with a letter to the committee, enclosing and fight their own city of Tory gentlemen in sight forward a candidacy, and not a sentiment would support him, they (Hear, hear)

to him at this time he went to that district, which was a queer, but which was a flourishing popular, he should endeavor to of the electors, and he which they had received but him either there or on or, and others.)

Joseph Conyland, Rochester; W. Leavelle, House; T. Fortman, Blackhill; W. Tu-

...evolution, pledging the
...one's elections; and after
...address of Sir Hedworth,
...in that district to get
...as to be prepared for a
...mission, and expressed
...they would meet as they ...Hedworth Wilkinton.

supported him. That portion of the numbered black list for the Liberals.

Government
the present
not be re-
been made been not pleased Go-
there was trality.
nearer to every Engpire, and Government
also a con-tion; but went the brought the

...we were that Sir Hedworth should fall, and should be elevated to the House of Lords, and chert). He would not dissent, then.

of that day, and for many of his late lamented chairman had said, he was his father, he would get the vote, but of those who moved a vote of thanks and with applause.

During the vote, reminded by Sir Robert Peel to "register," Every man, next election, his name on the register district a preponderant was not in existence but make the scale go

I think that was the right way to look at it. I was required to represent a county it was my duty to do so.

present member, and the extensive iron-
working him the principal of iron. He subsequently became which was returned by road to ELECTION.
a candidate to fill the
the Northern Division
by the death of Lord on Tuesday, in the
of the Liberal can-ty that pervaded the whole country, as improvement in the population generally, led

Mr. Baker, Esq., El-
 ston Scarsfield, Har-or of Durham; (J.
 Bramwell, Esq. (J.
 Esq., Durham; J.
 Williamson; W.
 Abbs, Esq., Sande-
 rhead; J. Legge,
 Griffith, Esq., Dar-High Sheriff of the which; and the Under-read the writ,
 the surname of the writ,
 to elect a knight of agent, in the reign of

... for a moderate and well considered
... introduced by a strong Government ;

any gentleman to rest by the lamented that a vacancy had
of the northern divi-
conferred upon him worth Williamson to good applause.) He not come forward
they might depend
it at a future time;
all of them would secure the return of ouse.) It was quite was untired, but his

the first question to which he allude America. Mail after mail, he said liberal, and he was entertained the same. He considered Sir John that he had for was connected with always acquitted. In proposing Sir were none present right man in the

