considerably. Before the innings ended 11. Musgrove and W. Radford had taken four and four wickets for 20 runs each, with three balls each, reached the substantial dimensions of 53. J. J. Jones accounted for five of the visitors' wickets in seven overs, off the bat. The last three men in seven overs got one wicket at the same score as his partner had got five. Thompson, however, had the best analysis of the three, taking four for 11.

Durham City made a very moderate show with the bat, their total being only 51. Five men made runs for very small scores, Moulton (5) and R. Hope (5) being the only respectable scorers of this low total. The first ball of the first over was a leg break, the next stand, putting on 11, and after this no noticeable score was made, the last five men only putting up a few runs. The last man was bowled by the 51, leaving Creghed victory

A GOOD PERFORMANCE BY STANLEY.

Stanley was in very form on Saturday last, and was met with a second string of successes, a result that the homesteaders suffered severely. The field tested to such effect that they were only three points off by the side of the homesteaders. The fall of M. Ledger and Jno. Watson (the first two men) scored 7 and 12, and then M. Bolton, the third man, and J. C. Robinson, who was back, scored 10 and 11. This old form and registered 11. T. Christopher, the last man, added 8, and extreme were credited with 11. However, was the most effective bowler on the Stanley side.

A CLOSE FINISH AT SHOTLBY.

The Shotley society last week entertained Burry-witted. The homecoming was in first and completed 53. B. Sinner, E. Watson, and Hope the first three men, made three couple of leavers before that things got a little too hot for the boys. T. Hainebach was the first batsman to make a stand, and he had made eight when caught by Hinderich.

huted materially to the score. Burnopfield set in T. Campbell, their captain, and W. F. Allan, who fired the first shot, and the latter was hit by Wardie. Campbell, however, played a capital game, but was ran out through being too eager to get the ball. Allan, who was fourth and fifth respectively, the Burnopfield total reaching 50. T. Allan played a very odd game as a critical point of the match. The Burnopfield players were not at all afraid of the umpire, who was a Shoolley man, but whose names unfortunately he omits to mention. The visitors were not at all afraid of the Burnopfield umpire, both of whom performed satisfactorily.

A WIN FOR TOP LAW
The return fixture between Tow Law and Stanley United calls for little comment, as never at any time has the latter been a serious contender for the title. The betting display, save that of Donaghy and Chessman, was indeed moderate, and to the pair the victory was a foregone conclusion. The first success, Stanley, who went first to the winners, made but an indifferent start, as Smith left without troubling the defence, and the first half ended, and a couple by T. Brown found the latter despatched by Hildreth. His namesake (M. Brown) falling, her wickets were down for a paltry total of six runs. Edmundson and Ellison, however, were the cast and when the previous test was three weeks ago, came to the rescue of their side, and before they were separated a useful 15 runs was made—a most valuable addition under the circumstances.

By Simpson, whilst two brilliant catches by Temperley in the longfield disposed of Carr and the last and when Simpson made McNulty was the nightbat by Simpson, the innings closed for 41.

Tow Law commenced with McNulty and Stitt, and after the latter had added a boundary was dismissed, but at the third attempt was despatched by Simpson, who was then called on to settle down. McNulty doing most of the scoring, and when the latter left his contribution totalled 40 runs, Simpson was left to settle the matter.

except Simpson, who put on exactly a score, and the result that the home team succeeded in reversing the result of the first half, by scoring 23 runs. Simpson and Hildreth howled unceasingly throughout for Tow Law, their analysis reading:

G. Simpson	0	7	3	10	4
W. Hildreth	0	1	1	23	4

LANCETER AGAIN WIN.

Lancaster kept on the winning kick, and at Blackline on Saturday afternoon, the 1st Connsett 2nd after a capital game. J. Wilson (23) and Jackson (26) were the heroes in the batting department for the winners, and based on the meritorious exposition of cricket. Ramsey (12) and Ross (11) also helped to swell the total, which included an excellent sumo to four out of the century. Lebrun was buried in the 2nd innings.

After an interesting race (Bessiah managed to get the better of South, Tangle by ten runs, although the match took place at Oxford). The home team were 100 runs to the good, and the visitors 100, Palmer 19, and Baine 16, but the "tail" cut up miserably, the last four men not raising a single run. The match was a very even one, and the part of Bessiah analysed there was as close as that. The most successful batsmen were Cook and Palmer, who were the only ones to score more than 10 runs.

as did Haine for the loaves.

A COMPLAINT FROM GREENWICH.

Dear Sir,—I think the Blackhall Mill had been believed in a very unportenmantlike manner on Saturday against Greenwich. A halaman ought always to be prepared to abide by an unper's
