

NOTICE.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORSHIP IN THE OLD-ESTABLISHED FOSTING BUSINESS AT BLACKHILL.

Telephone Address: Postal Address:
Blackburn, Blackhill. Gno. J. CROFTHER, Blackburn, Blackhill.

HAVING taken over the above Business, which has been carried on successfully for this last half-century by my deceased Father and Brother, I beg to intimate that it is my intention to carry on the same at the above address, and by employing good Horses and Carriage-men to concur with the confidence and patronage which has been so liberally bestowed upon my predecessors
Messrs and Messrs Crothers, Garrigue & Co. I am sure that I shall be able to give the same service, and Posing in all the branches will be done upon the most reasonable terms.

A Compensum Man will be in constant attendance

Mr. E. H. LARSON subsequently laid the stone, and observed that while Mr. Hutton was a coal owner he was simply a coal getter. (Applause.)

Mr GEORGE J. ROBINSON, who laid the Sunday scholars' at me, and purses containing £25 10s were raised thereon by the school children (present and the malotay of the church.

Tom, was subsequently served in the school-room and was well attended. The tables were presided over by Messrs. Wm. Walliser, Richard Smith, Bill, Smalley, and W. Reed.

At night, there was a public meeting in St. James's Palace Garden. Wm. Walliser, Nicholas, and W. Reed were the principal speakers. They were delivered by Revs. A. T. Kinnings, A. Baillie, Fitchburg, J. Bairdick, and E. W. Jennings. The Rev. Mr. Walliser presided, and Mr. Jennings, besides the circuit minister and his laymen.

The proceeds of the day were in aid of the building fund.

BATHING FATALITY AT CHESTER.
LE-STREET.

Reginald George Curry, son of Mr James Curry, of Le-mley Farm, Le-street, Chester, on Tuesday evening went with a schoolfellow to bath in the sea, about a quarter of a mile from his home. The children being many minutes in the water, young Curry was seen to be in difficulties, but he was rescued by a number of boys and young men were swimming in the immediate vicinity, and the river body was not recovered until a boat had been brought from the ferry and grappling irons brought to use. Dr L. Smith had in the meantime been summoned from Chester-le-Street, and did all that he could devise, but the unfortunate youth was beyond human aid. The affair cast quite a gloom amongst the scholars at the Higher Grade School at Seaham, where he attended, and over Chester-le-Street and district, where both the deceased and
