Opening services were held on Sunday June 5th, by Mr. Grey, Mr. Linn, and Mr. G. Lucas, of Gateshead. The attendance at the services was good, and the collection liberal. The prospects of the church are encouraging, about twenty members having joined the society.

The defendant had then officiated in the above capacity, and on being told to resign he handed over the books to his peer, who found that the amount stated was de minimis, and as it was not forthcoming the premises was taken to obtain it.—Defendant stated the sum stated had been handed to him while under the influence of liquor, and not having said it he had used it as his own. He had afterwards lost out of employment and had no more

He is a widower, and one son and two daughters living with four grandchildren and three great grandchildren. We are glad to say that this venerable sir enjoys good health and spirits; he is in possession of all his mental faculties, and can read without spectacles; and his eyes are still good. Mankind ought to thank him for setting us all a happy example. He has been a member seventy-two years, and is no doubt, the oldest member of that brotherly craft in the United States.
