THE BRIBING VIOLENCE AT TOW LAW.

The Editor of the County Observer.

On Sunday morning, the 14th inst., the people of Tow Law witnessed the most disgraceful and brutal scene of bribery and violence that has been known in the county since the days of the old English law. The scene was witnessed by a large number of people, and the result was a complete and utter failure of the law.

COMPULSORY VACCINATION.

The Editor of the County Observer.

On the 14th inst., the County Observer published an article on the subject of compulsory vaccination. The article was a very able and well-written one, and it was very interesting to read. It was a very good example of the kind of writing that the County Observer is capable of.

PAINFUL EPISODE IN UPPER WEALDALE.

SUDDEN DEATH IN A CHURCH.

A profound sensation was created through Upper Wealdale on Sunday consequent on the sudden death of a young man, who was the only son of Mr. J. H. Shepherd, of the village of St. John's Church, near St. John's. The death was the result of a sudden attack of heart disease, and it was a very sad and unexpected loss to the family.
