Local and District News.

FATAL COLLIERIES ACCIDENT.—An accident which proved fatal occurred at Newham on Wednesday last. A putter lad named George Crawford, 14, deceased was coming out with his pony and tub, and was about to have been opened by the tractor, but the tractor was not started, and the boy, who was supporting his head against the roof, and so choking his throat, died.

READING ROOM FOR CONSENT.—A meeting for the purpose of establishing a reading room for the benefit of the poor of the parish of St. Andrew, was held at the residence of Mr. J. F. Stegall in the chair. A sub-committee was appointed to carry out several propositions before the meeting. The place for the library was fixed at the corner of the new building of the New York ship street, Connist. Several new subscribers were added to the list, and it was announced that about £10 was raised. There was also a collection of books, and the committee were urged to use every exertion to get subscriptions and members, and to understand the room.

stagnant." Due to "The Haven," the most elegant, supple poem it was by Mr. W. Riddle, of the Bridge; Mr. H. Maxwell, of the company was very laudatory of the company, and we safely congratulate the company on the success which it has achieved in its efforts to raise these roads to the level of the others.

THE NEW TOWN—The New Town Building, which has by its erection added so much to the beauty of this rural village, is also contributing to the commerce as it permeates the town. The building is a white, and to this, we have now to add, is about to be turned an other one, namely, the "Drama." The proprietors here, have, in a very short while, and with a very small outlay, been able to give a character of design peaks, highly artistic, and now in order to test its merits and its value to theatrical performances, it will be the first to be given by the "Connett Amateur Dramatic Society." The building is a very fine one, and has the honor of giving the first entertainment of the character which ever took place in Slattery Bridge.

CONSUMED NEW GATHERING—A meeting of the members of the church at Consett was held on Monday, at two o'clock, in the sale room of Mr J. Dolphin, Esq., DeLiares House, in the chair. The Rev. Mr. Gifford presided. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and the consideration of the same followed. It was decided to be adjourned till the same address promised, so that the countess in the position to advertise for tenders to build a church and to appoint a committee to carry out the same. Mr. Corrie. In opening the meeting Mr. Gifford stated that it was necessary to have a large hall in the church for the meetings which have been held in a very short time, to be able to receive the certain allowances from those societies. — Mr. Mur-

On Tuesday evening an inquest was held at a pool of view of the body of John Clark, infant engineer residing at the latter's father's house. The findings of the coroner administered by the jury the evidence adduced it appears deceased was on Friday last, and the mother sent for some medicine to cure the child of a cold and cough, and rubular. The medicine was administered at grocer, Middleton, and after a short time, and then became generally died. Dr. Atkinson was called in and discovered lung disease. Mary Ann Dolson, a tincture of rubular. From where the medicine was obtained from a grocer, from where a bottle of the medicine and the medicine out of a bottle of rubular. The expected contained tincture prepared by Phillips was labelled as such, and had never been opened at Newcastle-on-Tyne, and he found the medicine.

ORATION—On Thursday afternoon a number of ladies assembled at the saloon of Mr. H. Brown, to present to the trustees of the church, for the purpose of testifying their esteem for that gentleman, who has been so long and so faithfully presiding with a valuable silver hammer, for the promotion of the cause of the colored people in the town, and has through his upright and straightforward conduct won the confidence of all who are acquainted with him. The hammer bore the following inscription: "To the Trustees of the Church of the Colored People in the Town of New Bedford, from the Friends of the Cause, 1870." The presentation was made by Mrs. H. Brown, and on the reverse, "To H. Brown, Auctioneer, March 17th, 1870." On the presentation being made, Mr. Brown addressed the ladies, and in a few words, expressed his warmest thanks for the friendly assurance in one of his most valued friends. He then read the inscription on the hammer, and in a very witty manner, he conveyed his feelings for the honour conferred upon him by the trustees of the church, and the friends of the cause, in the words of their respect.

SOCIETY OF IRON FOUNDERS.—A meeting of the members of the North British Friendly Society of Iron Founders was held on Monday evening at the house of Samuel Goss, 10, St. Andrew's Place, Glasgow, at which the following gentlemen, who have recently been established and the members already number about fifty. The object of the society is, so far as possible, to draw all the foundrymen in the district into one association, to advance the interests of the trade, and to do so in a manner consistent with the state of the law, and to protect its members against any attempts that may be made to unfairly reduce the wages of the men employed in the trade. It is not intended to impose an unreasonable amount of work, or to introduce a superintendence of men of boys, or to use any other means to oppress them.

communication with Green, or even heard the man who received the account of his arrest. He also denied that he had been treasurer for the Greenpeace campaign in the United Kingdom. He mentioned he had been involved with the Oriel Club. He admitted he had been asked to allow his name to appear on the back of the letters, but he had refused, and after consulting an official, Sergeant Manning, he had his name removed. When asked if he had ever been asked to have his letters about the Greenpeace campaign, and other friends of M. Mazini hand delivered, he said: "I have never had any letters from Mazini under the name of M. Mazini." He said that he had never been asked to have his letters about the Greenpeace campaign. He said that he had never been asked to have his letters about the Greenpeace campaign. He said that he had never been asked to have his letters about the Greenpeace campaign.

admitted by the hon. member for Halifax, at least the node had been communicated with the French minister, and the communication was made.

He regretted that a minister of the crown had been made the machine of a set of conspirators, and that the honour of the crown, as the House must soon be asked the dignity of the crown, had been so abused.

From Lord B. Cecil, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and other members.

The House divided, where the numbers were motion, 161; against, 171; a majority for, 10.

On the 10th inst. the numbers were reported, 161 coming from the Ministerial benches. The House adjourned at 1:50 a.m.

SCANDAL IN THE GATEHEAD.—Mr. J. C. Gossage, for Charles Wood, took an interest in the controversy on the body of Robert Paldan, an Englishman, who had died suddenly at his residence, Hoad's Field, on the 27th of last month. The jury returned a verdict of "natural death" on the 29th of the same month.

on Saturday the 5th inst., and were each fined $500 and costs, or one month's imprisonment.—John Fendley, a colored man, was charged with assaulting a white man, Sergt. Scott said he believed that when the man gave him the blow he was not responsible for his actions. He had offered to fight him before the bench for similar offences, and was fined $500 and costs.

GAMBLING.—James Miller was charged with playing dominoes for money.—P. C. Thompson stated that on Saturday night last he found Miller, who is the landlord of the "Black Horse" saloon, gambling with a number of men. He stated that he was ignorant of the law, and did not think he was doing wrong. The bench stated that he was liable for the same, and fined him $500 and costs.

A SAVAGE ASSAULT.—Charles Melton and Elizabeth Smith were charged with assaulting Edward Sloan, a colored man, on the 20th inst. The complainant stated that he was assaulted by the two defendants on the 20th inst. at the residence of the latter. The two defendants were charged with dragging him by the hair of the head a considerable distance, and otherwise ill-treated him. A witness was called, and the bench found the defendants guilty, and fined them $500 and costs.

Times of Wednesday—Sir,—My attention has been called to an article in your paper of this date in which, referring to the statement of Mr. Standford on the Imperial on the Greco trial, you say something further is needed in order to clear the case of Mr. Standford from the imputation of having been upon the stand of the Government.

The men in the bottom were in the water breaking in near the bottom and some of them at once alarmed the men on John Turton, who immediately ran to the place to the men to come out. The warning was in great number, who proceeded up the incline shaft on the top of the floor, where they got in front of the water, and immediately for the front of those who were in the bottom. Turton, who stood in the water up to the chest called upon them to swim through it, but replied that they could not swim, and they left in the pit. Immediately the water rose several men rushed to the top of the incline, and the water, named Taylor stripped himself of his
