

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

Another hitch has occurred in the progress of the second volume of the "Life of Caesar," further cancels and alterations have been made, and the French Emperor allowed for building it.

SPANISH PROGRESS.—A Madrid correspondent writes:

boiler where upon the pavement. It is a sad, shocking, horrendous sight. One good thing there is about the g pliments then paid to me were not addressed so much to me as to the whole of the French Bay. England and which I this day receive from you, are the joy & consolation of my old age far more than that which can be proud to call my glory or reputation. Yea: I for

Clinton. She was in command of a highly respected Tyne captain, Mr. George Illerton, who had for his and it is feared that the vessel has been wrecked in the Channel and the whole of the crew drowned. The ship was last seen on the 21st inst. when the Zambesi left Durban.

subject into consideration. At the beginning of last Minister of Agriculture, Commerce, and Public

Alfort, to examine the disease as regards animals. Commissioners are about to proceed on their jour-Fructher Ignatius, who dated from Rome on the "Ss. Scholastica," states that through the mercy of opinion; "sometimes English ladies seem to find Guineas modesty in their anxiety to get young."

of sale
and him

again called into the Pope's presence, in a vast hall, where numbers of young soldiers, some blatant in our conduct or not, I suppose."

