DRUNKENNESS.

James McManus pleaded guilty to being drunk against him by P.G. Newton, of the Cornsey Colliery, on May last, and was fined £10 and costs.

James and Arnetta Eusden, man and wife, of the same place, were fined £10, on tramp, were respectively fined £10 and costs, or seven days' imprisonment, for being drunk against him by P.G. Newton, on May last, on the previous (Wednesday) night.

over to keep the peace for six months, for using obscene and threatening language. Fairley, at Blackhill, on May 2nd, the same defendant was further charged for breaking the windows of the dwelling-house of Mrs Fairley, Moore having on the 1st of May smashed 13 panes of glass, the value of the same to be £6d. Defendant demolished the window with a poker, and for threatening a constable, who was afraid of the woman, and for asserting that her husband went to Mr Douglas, of the Cornett Iron Company, for the windows being replaced, on May 2nd, and that the panes had been put in by the men. Defendant said that she was not sure what had happened. She was threatened by the constable. The witness said that the defendant had been guilty of much offence; and it was suggested that she should be put in the stocks for 14 days. The jury for the last time returned their verdict for the last time.

NEARLY ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS.—All who are afflicted with any of the above complaints are greatly surprised at the almost immediate relief afforded by the use of "Brown's Bronchitis." These famous "Lozenges" are now sold in all the most respectable Chemists in this country at 1s. 6d. per box. People troubled with a "backing cough," "tight chest," or bronchial affections, cannot afford to neglect such, as similar troubles, if allowed to progress, result in serious Pulmonary and Asthmatic affections. Hence the words "Brown's Bronchitis Lozenges" are on the Government Stamp around each box. Prepared by JOHN L. BROWN & SONS, Rochester, Kent. Sole Depot, 25, Farringdon Road, London.
