THE BRIGHTON TRUST—On Monday, the report of the society for the year, we learn that during the year the society has published 21 tracts, 10 of which were by Mr. Messenger, 3 by Mr. T. J. and 8 by Mr. S. C. publication. It also has paid 11 for the young—besides a large number of other tracts. The publications were mostly tracts issued by the society last year to 41,250,000, and an appropriation of $2,500 for the year. There were $5,975 having been 5,220,000; and the society of the year, the
