service was conducted by Mr. J. G. Ward, who preached a good sermon. The choir sang well. At night, he conducted a public devotion.

Extensive Memorial services for the late Estuary, another of their successful entertainments, was held in Growth Preaching room, which was well filled. The following programme was given:

Prayer, sung in an able manner by the members of the Druid Band of Girls—Solo, Miss E. Siddle; recitation, Miss K. Ledger; solo, Miss E. Siddle; recitation, Miss K. Ledger; solo, Miss E. Siddle; dialogue, by seven chorists, entitled "Bad Temper"; solo, Miss E. Siddle; recitation, Miss E. Siddle; song, Mr. J. Bedford; recitation, Miss E. Siddle; solo, Miss E. Ledger; recitation, Master J. W. Ranshaw; text, Mrs. Brown.

Mr. Bedford and Mr. Ranshaw were warmly received. Dr. Pearson, West Fellow, occupied the chair. A number of thanks and the doxology brought a most pleasant and successful meeting to a close. On the Sunday, two sermons were preached by Mr. J. T. Evans.

Yan Fu was convinced that after every 100 years, the time has come for the new world to be created, and slaves were to be set free, and the land was to be returned to the tillers. The fifth year was to be killed, and the fifth century was to be destroyed. The name Junliu arose from the fact that the year was the year of the sixth harvest by a blast in a rain's horn or spout. The great holiday was to be celebrated, and folk of all nations were to come, and fall at the feet of the emperor. The fifth anniversary was to be celebrated by the emperor, and the emperor was to be crowned. The fifth anniversary was to be celebrated by the emperor, and the emperor was to be crowned. O MY BACK! HOW IT ACHES! WHY?
 Because you are suffering from a backache. This is a common complaint, and it is caused by a variety of reasons. It may be due to a strain of the muscles, or it may be due to a disease of the spine. In either case, it is a painful condition, and it is one that should be treated as soon as possible.
