

FRIDAY EVENING, May 30th, 1890

[illegible]

LIONS IN MARBLE
 AND GRANITE, BLACKHILL, AND OXFELD.
 Located in Town or Country
 Estimates on application.
 ROBERT JACKSON & Co
 29 Frank Street
 May, 2nd, 1890.

Page
AND
2

2

The following minute dispute at the Works, were last Friday afternoon:

The Consett Independent position in the company, rather than a union, have always been the REALISATION OF arbitration board is a sign of the present of a more settled and advanced position. The union taken before the men had been in steelworks and decided that the

MEN AT CONSERV

in dispute would have been held between Newcastle on Tuesday, already agreed upon, was made towards that the new organization is a rather hasty action; but the organization greatly trained and enabled to deal with existing

supplied from the same continuous—and at

of plates will be necessary, and, in view of the operations, it is clear that it will be the sufferers by. Therefore, it is a question of a few thousand men in the district, and the hitherto land will be deprived of the SOMETHING paid by the Government. Besides the incense, pig iron, &c., the damp down, and the colonies belonging to being that about 4,000. As regards the proposed it should be differences do not in labour performed or that is, the steel sheet.

The Cornett Iron Coy can supply you with

AS TO
union men. As regards Consett Iron Co. and the accusation the union men, these statements exhaustively directed employer at Newcastle
completely refuted.
sides are apparently management of the
adhere to their determined union men, or to conclude to in a matter

possible that Consett straitened circumstances of a strike in

LOCAL STEELWORKERS, as recorded in the recent issue of Guardian, by Mr Thomas Williams, president of the Board of the North of England Institute for the Deaf, are striving to obstruct organizations of the ready-to-accept them in the event of this, and direct a cabin in the pay their contributions to the "workers' association."

There was no change in the position of affairs at the time of the Vickers furnaces and the Consett Iron Company closed operations.

EXTRAORDIN

The CHAIRMAN explained that his members were aware that what were the relations to this dispute their position in regard the interests of those certainly entitled to the

their looks. (Applaud-ment.)
COULD NOT TIE
even if they were anxious their organization were winning such a contest.
MR. T. WILLIAMS, of the Board of Conciliation between Iron and Steel England, said he wished that Associated Iron and Steel had been
HAD NO DE
with the Comest. Iron differences arose simultaneously at the same
producers at the same
product individual Iron of Trade Unionism.
protect the workmen against
TIBANNY AND OFFER
and what they claimed prepared to concede to association had no doubt circumstances, they will interests of their own in ducing department at the time the numbers of the Association of Great Britain and Iron Steelmakers' Union, 18. He said that four years ago the Association was then in Daniel Williams, operating gas producing iron into

Business Announcements

