American team will add to the general interest

...and many prominent cricketers have already got their tickets for the match on Saturday.

...the Lanesboro Steamship has been lying by the half-century for the same time.

...on Saturday, Good Artur!

...the South in good bowling time.

...will be unable to turn out for the match for a month, owing to a severe sprain.

...has been appointed "coach" at Old Trafford.

...South Africa, scored to the serious illness of his father.

...W. G. scored 29 against Vernon Hills' team, on Saturday.

...match, Charles Townsley made 30, and W. G. 25, against the Hampshire team.

...K. J. Key will again captain the Surrey team, on Saturday.

...F. F. Warner has an average of 51% for 22 innings for Lord Hawke's team, which has just been defeated by the Hampshire team.

...A. C. McLaren has accepted an invitation to play for the Hampshire team, on Saturday.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

Park rattled up the splendid total of 132 runs, towards which the chief contributors were J. M. Crawford (28), and the Rev. A. Thornton (25). In the second innings the only managew 57, of which 21, not out, were contributed by T. D. Dales. Ardley again distinguished himself in the bowling line, five wickets being his haul, and Gray was the best bowler on the losing team.

BEAMISH OPEN WELL.

Beamish received a visit from the Medomsley team on Saturday, and did not forget to pile on the agony in such a manner as will make the Medomsleyites remember their visit to the "Beehive" and not another. Going to the wickets first, the visitors' ranks were made up of five runs, Stokoe being head notcher

Finlay and Bryson shared the bowling honours, capturing respectively four and six wickets. Heatsch on handling the willow ran up a total of 62 runs, thus winning easily by 57 runs. G. Humber (2), and D. Doring (17), were the chief scorers for the winners, each of them showing admirable batting.

VACANT DATES.

Beamish cricketers have June 19th (home), and July 10th (away) vacant. Secretary, Mr Fred. Mole, Pit Hill, R.S.O.

CRICKET.

DURHAM SENIOR LEAGUE.

CONSETT AND DISTRICT v. CHESTER-LE-STREET.
 [BY "THE BRANLEY BOYS."]

These teams met at Chester-le-Street last Saturday, under the auspices of the above League, and the result was a draw. The weather was very fine, and it was close upon three o'clock when the match began. The home team, captained by Siddell and Richardson, had the bowling of Tom Middleton and Jack Bewick. The first run was made by Siddell, who was bowled by Bewick, who notched a single off the last ball of Middleton's first over. The first wicket fell by Siddell, and Bewick, followed by Richardson, drove Middleton's first over for a total of 10 runs, and raised the number of runs to ten. Siddell drove Bewick for

A maiden, two appeals against Richardson ending in the Consettian's favour. Siddell cut Bewick for one, and he also got Middleton to leg for three. Then, after three more maidens, Bewick, having Richardson was stamped by Jim Bewick, having contributed five. One for 20. Walton how partnered Siddell, and cut Bewick for one. Walton and Bewick continued to bowl the same bowler, and the over terminated off the same bowler. Middellton legged for three, and Walton drove him to the boundary for a similar number. A single was added by Walton, off Bewick, and Siddell drove home a local boundary. Walton was next caught behind the wickets by J. K. Bewick. 6 for 21. Martin next faced the bowling, and Siddell hit Bewick splendidly to leg for three. Then, after another maiden, Bewick made an error, and Martin hit Middell.

for a couple. Robson and Jim Bewick went on in place of Middleton and Jack Bewick, respectively, but Martin had no difficulty in placing the second-named's delivery for a couple. Fifty went up, and Martin was caught by Jim Bewick, after scoring 10. (3 for 51.) Godfrey took up the
