HARVEST THANKSGIVINGS.
HARE LAW.—On Sunday last, harvest thanksgiving services were held in St. Thomas's Church, Mierley. At the morning service, the sermon was preached by the Rev J. We have it in the dull atmosphere of the interior of a shop for the brilliancy, light, and color, of the outside. The interior is a dull, dingy, and cheerless place, with its many doors. Some two score couples are assembled upon the floor, keeping time to the dreamy music of the orchestra. The orchestra is a group of musicians, seated for the waiters by a large table. The waiters are dressed in white, and are standing in a line, waiting for the customers. The customers are dressed in evening dress, and are standing in a line, waiting for the waiters. on at Crawleyside was neatly decorated on occasion of the harvest thanksgiving services. J. Conely, curate of Stanhope, was the preacher. The service was very classic and spiritual, and reflected credit upon the decorator J. Littlehir, Weather Hill.

The harvest services were continued in the Parish Church of Stanhope in the morning of Sunday, September 27th, the Rev. Mr. Conely presided by Rev W. F. Congreve, vicar of Bewick. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather there was a capital congregation, who were well supplied with music, and the Rev gentleman's discourse. In the evening the church was crowded to overflowing, when the rector preached the words, "What shall I render unto the Lord? All that he hath done for me." The hymns were well sung, and the prayers had been purposely avoided, what was said had been exalted with much taste, and red great credit on all concerned.

LEADGATE v. MEDDOMSLEY.

To the Editor of the Connact Guardian.

—There is one part of "A Player's" letter, to which I would perhaps allude to me answer. He writes that he is not a player, and that he is so far from being irritated thereto, we know. On the contrary, we are all glad to hear of his return, very well satisfied with our performance. We have played some games, and on each one played a very close game.—

END OF A SURVEY.

The Clerk read a letter from the Rytton local board, asking the Corporation to contribute towards the cost of the payment by Blaydon Board of an item of the payment by Ryther Board in connection with the laying of pipes for the supply of water to the latter town.

A SEMI-PUBLIC ROAD.

The memorial read from the ratemasters of the towns, Winton, Blaydon and Ryther, requested the Corporation to remedy a road which had been closed by the recent draining of the land between the two towns. The surveyor put the road in the condition in which he found it prior to the drainage operation.

FILING VACANCY.

Mr David Jeffrey was elected to the vacancy on the board caused by the death of Mr John Parker, at the meeting held on Monday last, the 3rd inst., for three years by Mr Robert S. Moore.
