RUSSIA AND THE EASTERN QUESTION.
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 17th.—The note of Prince Orshachoff on the subject of the Treaty of 1856 is universally approved here. All the papers have long leading articles on the subject. The opinion expressed that the matter will be peacefully settled; but it is at the same time indicated that Russia is ready for war should war become necessary. The Golos calls upon the public to organise a national subscription.

DEFINITE DECISION UNDER THE REFORM ACT.
Court of Common Pleas has decided in the Cross v. Alsop, that joint occupiers of a house name were all entered in the rate-book, though the landlord paid the rates, were not entitled to the franchise by virtue of such entry; but the meaning of the Reform Act was, that each must be separately rated in a separate summation of the landlord paying a lump sum for the house in order to confer the franchise. This was in the absence of an agreement between the landlord and the occupiers for compounding under Mr.

sums will be admitted, but that the dividend to the brokers will receive will be materially reduced by the admission also of a great claim on the part of the trustee appointed under the bankruptcy of the surviving partners in the bank. This claim was the restitution of vast sums which the action was alleged to have been improperly appropriated by Sir R. Harvey in connection with the administration of the affairs of the bank. A small amount of these appropriations is set down at £10,000 in round figures; and should this heavy sum be admitted, as it is very probable, the dividend

Halpin, who commanded the Oregon, Eastern's first recent cable laying in the Indian and Pacific, telegraphed to Liverpool, from on board the Hibernian, on Friday, to the effect, that he intended to leave on the 10th inst. for the additional good it could do if we were better. The sermon being ended, a collection was made for the hospital, and then postulant re-change her worldly dress for that of a nun, return to the church the Archbishop held the oil over her head, and the superiors placed her, and the choir chanted the psalm "In exitu" At its conclusion, the novice re-appeared in dress of her order, "Veni Creator Spiritus" singing, and this young girl had left the world behind. The present novice is a Miss Power, born to a wealthy family in Watford.
