FRANCO-AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP.

RUSSOPHOBIA.

THE pulse of the British nation is being felt both at home and abroad, but we are much mistaken if the most astute political doctor has been able to detect, with the most delicate stethoscope the faintest respiration of genuine Russophobia although it is idle to deny that at this moment our old friend the Kaiser is the question is presenting the most alarming symptoms. The "sick man" has now of the comfortable moneyed class with which with a seat for the Berks and a fine estate that country, the Times now delights in identifying itself. In 1854 things had become a money question, so the Times could afford to ramp up Mahomedan Turkey with the same consistency as it betrayed in preaching its well-known crusade for slaves. In the great American struggle between North and South. Since that day the Times has continued to be a leader of public opinion. It possibly could do but little to spread a war fever

The Press ought to pass a self-denying ordinance, and resolve to report no more proceedings in the case of "the unhappy nobleman at present languishing at Dartmoor." This stout party, "the two single gentlemen rolled into one," was treated last week in a way which Solomon proposed in the case of the five children. The claimant has, metaphorically speaking, been cut in two between the Onelew and Kewaley families. The Magnesian Association claimant is left with the sole exclusive privilege of the Tichborne Deceased Association." And why? King's Roman "sheep or die" is the word.

A DERELICT VESSEL BROUGHT INTO THE TYNE.—On Tuesday night, the steamtugs Stephenson and Victor brought the brig Elizabeth, from Stettin from Sunderland, into the Tyne in a water-logged condition. It appears that at about nine o'clock on Tuesday morning, while the tug was about six miles N.E. of Tynemouth, the Elizabeth, which was a small vessel, was seen. Captain, they picked up the brig, and it is believed to be laden with coal. There is about twelve feet of water in the hold. One of the ship's sails was seen, and it is believed to have been caused by the same being up. It is believed to have been on board the vessel. The ship's papers, etc., were on board. Nothing is at present known of the crew.

THE HILMAN KIDNAPING CASE.—On Thursday, Edward Robert Parker was brought up in custody before Capt. Atkinson, on the charge of deserting his wife and family and having them chargeable to Haxham Union, and formally remanded until Tuesday next, bail being accepted.

GRAND EVENING CONCERT.—Our readers are reminded of the grand evening concert to be held in the Town Hall, Broadway bridge, on Monday evening. The talent of the various artists is undisputed, and the readings of Mr. Lax are at all times highly enjoyable. In addition to the first-class character of the entertainment, the object of the concert—the raising of funds for the Blackhill Mechanics'— and it is time indeed that there should be access to the English people the means of knowing all about our great Indian Empire. We are glad, therefore, to observe that Messrs. Cassells, Petter, & Galpin, in view of the widespread interest aroused by the Prince of Wales' visit to the East, are about to issue, in monthly parts and weekly numbers, an illustrated "History of India," uniform in style and price with "Cassell's History of England." With part I of this work, ready on the 20th of December, will be issued as a presentation plate a life-like portrait of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, produced given in grand style. Miss Gault, who next sang "Under the May bush" with great effect and was followed by Mr. O'Biggins, Irish songster, whose songs elicited repeated applause. The recitation by Mr. Busby were well chosen, and rendered with great effect. Mr. S. Smith, the student, sang in all his beautiful voice.

in the popular song "Leaning on the balcony," in answer to a hearty smore, came forward in uniform of a volunteer and sang "The Awk Squad" in a manner which caused the audience to give vent to vociferous cheering. Mr. Saunders "She wore a wreath of roses" very creditably.

great credit is due to Mr. A. Conly, the most efficient way in which he sung "Happy go lucky" and "Three-happiness for a shave." He promises to become a vocal amateur of some importance. The duets, "The hunting tower" and "Gipsy Countess" were next engaged in by Miss Gallen and Messrs. Conly and Conly.
