

[By WHEELER],

somewhat novel application of
and provided a great deal of pursue call of Jeremiah McLean is not able to work, asked that him as bellman for Connett and a hall with him into Court-you point out any Act of authority not to appoint a Well, in large towns, the bellman magistrates.—The Chairman in incorporate towns, I believe offimen are chosen by the Mayor, authority for appointing a be-Well, I can't say that I can.
sometimes they can get a bellman

(More laughter).—The Civil better apply to the Local Applicant: But I want the hill as well as Consett.—The had better apply to both Applicant: I have mentioned three gentlemen, and they have me providing I got the appoint so many bellmen—either they don't know who the right party is, or they are afraid to call. Very well, the more the

Patrick Ward and John C. severally summoned by Sergt. news at that place, 9th Nov.—

Martin Fowells and Miles were accused by Sergeant Byrd of being involved in the flight at the detention at Legation 1548 and neglected to appear, and was given seven days imprisonment. The most of the environmental penalty.

Thomas Hefley (no appearance) upon the testimony of P.G. Latham and passing on the 1st, and was ordered to be held in the airframe being seven days.

Thomas Porter was summoned by Sergeant Byrd for bringing his dog to Legation 1548, and was fined $50.

Mikhail Baferty and Thomas were accused by P.G. Lawson of being drunk, were sentenced to the same.

Robert Larin and Wm. Hall Hudson with being intoxicated disturbance at Frenchman's Cove. They were fined $5 each and were committed to prison.

P.C. Muebin preferred their Minors and George 149, and officers having been arrested

St. 11th, and 16th Nov. - K
and costs.
Deputy Bailiff appeared
made against him by P.C. T.
and disorderly at Committee, 15
to pay fine and costs.
John McKernan having Smith in a very drunken state
was dealt with in a like manner.
Edward Boyle was summoned
being drunk and incapable
and was fined 5s and costs.
ANOTHER DE RACEL OF
Thirty two men, named Joe Lowry, Francis Kendrick,
Armstrong Thos. Bell, John
William Neil, John Gen. John
Edward Wardner, James
George Irish, Edward Clyer, M.
Turner, Edward Bishop, Pat.

Patrick Quinn, Patrick Hughes, James Archibald Turner, Patrick McAlloon, jun., all were summoned for playing on public road leading from R.

three exceptions, all the defendants.—Mr J. McCartan (P) of the firm, and at the defendants being tried in a case they were not jointly charged, one name being specified or implied that in the original appeared thereon, and defendant.—Mr McCartan contended women were those served simply wanted to call one name at another.—The magistrates take each case separately, did not represent the first case and asked their Worship to (Mr McCartan) appeared.

[illegible]

Asked the reason that they police appeared, they replied were afraid that they were Mabath day, by witness Owen Hughes and Quinn
that Bernard Rogers accom
on that particular afternoon
which was a mile-and-a-half alleged gambling took place to Leadgate till about four that the Magistrate made careful consideration, and against Bernard Rogers. The gambling took place in two to give several defendants to J. Anderson, J. Armstrong, strong (2), E. Wanless, G. P. McAloon, son., and T. S. each and each. The rest discharged.

was removed by P.C. Tubbs on Saturday night, 9th inst. for the space of six months, costs incurred. McAnane's mother, and a warrant was returned for her arrest on the charge of REVOLTING CRUELTY TO CHILDREN.

Mary Donnelly, a single woman, was charged with being in the dock charged by S. Leadgate, with unlawfully Welford (Conservative) pronounced the defendant—Procestrick, who had lived next door to them, as a man who had been encouraged by the police. On the date referred to, Procestrick's dinner to the picknick the cat (which was a gift of the house, and afterwards, gaily, she dealt the animals with the weapon, cutting them. When she remembered that she threatened to treat the cat, she saw it. Procestrick told Nicholas the same night, and an empty animal, and she took some food, and she took the release it from its cage. In answer to Mr McGarrin, Procestrick tried to coup the cat. (Mrs. Montbouse) had friendly terms with her.

the cat, and he roared ahead. The cuts were penetrating the hair and P.G. Bembie said that Mrs Monkbouse came to

100

