It is written by a man of letters, and is treated by the publisher, Mr. Blakett Street, Newcastle, in a manner. The publisher, Mr. Blakett Street, Newcastle, is pushing his Magnetic Appliances, and is now distributing small bottles of "Gordon's Extract," and to them, on the aggregate, were sent 10,000 bottles of medicine. But, in addition, Gordon & Co. were overwhelmed with applications from poor sick people, without the intervention of clergymen, and so it came about that no less than 54,000 bottles of "Gordon's Extract" were in 1854 given free of all cross-the-carriage even being paid for.
