

On Friday week, this unfortunate strike between masters and men assumed a more favourable aspect.

SATURDAY.
SIGNS OF A COMPROMISE.

At the same time the miners, though willing to come

Notice to the above effect have been, or will be, posted at Messrs. Strakers & Love's collieries, and men will be at liberty to return to work on those terms. This men do not view as the view of the men to assume extent but they seem to be be scarcely satisfied that an arbitration between three of the owners and three of their own body had not been agreed to. We have been told that the men are not the least of the opinion that the strike hammers who were not on strike without any notice, demanded prices considerably higher than those paid to Messrs. Pomes' men for work that is precisely similar. There are still unfortunately many points of difficulty to be decided, the worst of which perhaps will be that relating to the same

THE MASTER'S TERMS REFUSED BY THE MEN.

on Saturday night last, became aware of the fact, and the nature of the terms offered, at once communicate tube, instead of 20, to the score.) They therefore stipulate that the score shall, for the future, mean 20 and not their appeal for assistance having also been responded to by several private individuals. As a proof of this, we

Mr. Love; but his reply had been received by the committee. It remains to be seen, therefore, whether the owners will comply with this request on the part of

WEDNESDAY.
It appears that violence and outrage have broken out work in the pit. The other men immediately informed their employers that, if the twelve fresh men 50lbs. (instead of 56lbs. as proposed by the owners) less than the standard weight. To this suggestion the owners have no objection. It is suggested that they will ays, been made by the men, seem to have had little effect upon the masters in causing them to swerve in the slightest in the resolutions they have made as to the only and in order still further to strengthen their hands in a pecuniary point of view, a public meeting was held yesterday at which it was resolved to give employment

THE LATE GALE.

he late gales it is to be feared have crippled some of collier vessels in the North Sea, and there is a great & Hartlepool, during the whole of Monday, there was a violent wind, accompanied by pelting showers of rain.

erous passage. When about twenty miles off Hart-d he saw the hull of a schooner with a flag of dis-

Vessels were safe.

the gale which took place on Thursday and Friday, the W. S. W., appears to have been very severe and small boat that came off to the steamer. In a short during a temporary lull, the captain weighed torbay, was run into in Margate Roads by the brig Abeth of Copenhagen, and sunk in nine fathoms of Miscellaneous News.

arnall's weekly report to the Central Committee after on Monday, shows that a further decrease of by a heavy sea, and shipped a considerable quantity in her cabins. Her Royal Highness was most affected by sea sickness.

described as a person named O'Kane, "formerly of the City of London, and now of Commercial Road, London," the correspondent is said to be no less a personage than therefore, that the vessel destroyed by the pirates is than the Panama.

ical man, where his wounds were dressed, and conveyed to the London Hospital. He lies in a dazed condition. It appears that his name is Pierre Allery.

that Bloom was not aware he was hurt until he saw blood coming out of his clothes. Franks was followed apprehended as he was entering his father's prothe directors to raise the £50,000; the report of the tee was adopted and ordered to be printed; and the terminated with the usual vote of thanks.

the Lord-Lieutenant, with reference to the letter him, signed by 28 peers and magistrates, was tion, however, conclusively proves that ima rendered it necessary that he should seek

When a French officer and a Mexican officer in an new uniform, offered their hands to assist me. The lady said: "Between a traitor and morning, a man respectably dressed entered and without any warning knocked her down

"In what is called a leading paragraph in which, by the merest chance, was presented to

Attorney-General asked the Court to give him the ordinary time of four days for the purpose of preparing for a new trial in the case, and he did so.

the appeal will be granted, so that the points of fact involved in the case may be for the purpose of drying the premises, and it is that to this circumstance this disaster may be daughter Alexandra, the Princess of Wales; of 50,000 dollars to the King of Hellenes, is paid. The final rate of wages cannot be determined until what is known as the passages are fully covered.

known as Kendall's Wholesale Bible London Gospel Tract Depot, next door to st Society. The fire which commenced in ceeding into the engine-house to start the heard a loud crack and crash together, with remembered that the prisoner ordered of card plate to be engraved with the name belief that he was Captain Vernon Hart-ton-gardens. There were a dozen such on duty near Shirland-lane, adjoining the field, and Lincolnshire Railway, when they were coming towards them along the line.

where stimulants were given to him, and

