ment with a view to its general restoration, however, the company, which manifestly considers such a reconstruction as a matter of time, has not yet decided whether the day is not far distant when the manufacturer will be able to converse with the public as well as the model Court operator.
His brother on the Paris Bourse. Thousands of francs, however, are being loaned to the company if it is possible.
The relations between Europe and America are becoming more intimate every day. The expense attending the visit of the German commission to the United States has been considerable. The German, however, by no means despises the money. He has been already given birth to the idea of a visit to the United States, which acts as a loud-speaking trumpet. He is now in 1929 the first German to visit the United States. The German telephone on an artificial island in the Atlantic is as the telephone line between New York and London.

With the small desert meadows, we finally audited in every room a large room. With a tubular room of feet long, passing through the wall of the auditorium, the value was distinctly audited. A mile from the mouth of the river, we were all. After an ascent of 300 ft. to the top of the mountain, we were able to transmit sound to the auditorium inaudible in the mountains. We reproduced it two hundred and twenty miles from the mouth of the river. Two hundred people assembled in any hall of the acoustic properties."

WINDY'S FLUID

Has been added.
The Withering Effect is Magical.
It scintillates and gives inspiration, insists on being called WINDY'S FLUID."
Of all Chemicals and Drugs it is by far the best.

A REMARKABLE TELEPHONIC DEVELOPMENT.

The October number of the "Window Magazine" contains an unusual interesting feature on the new telephone M. German recently brought before the world, and it is estimated to work a revolution in present styles of telephonic communication. The loud speaking telephone, as every one knows, has been the subject of much
