

ARCH TEMPERANCE

[illegible]

M. A. Coulson, T. Davies, and T. H. Craig. A gl

Pharmac, and Messrs. The tutor of the showed great proficiency on the flute, recorder. Notwithstanding which school was crowded with an enthusiastic audience, the society after the me is a perfectly impartial, independent, public journal. His report the School Board of their unfairness for publishing devotedly to be wished the Welch tramp Lord his "profession" from his so highly unsatisfactory

WHAT SAYS THE

is delightful to hear ce in such matters, and to sett is the worst town in young ladies of Weardale, other things round about, are remarkable for the fact, that in that locality the most productive physical development, according to the census, is the fair ones upon whom an extent as to the number of children is ascribed to many if persisted in the notion that the Annandale railway extension agitation is not a thing of the future.

although it is quite true

It requires no very strenuous efforts who are not tradesmen to concern them also.

It should be borne in mind that the agitation in the district is not the result of the I. C. Company in carrying out its programme.

It must not be forgotten that the I. C. has treated the district badly, having regard for the interests of the country.

It should be left to the Government to endeavour to accomplish what is at heart, and the Government has a successful issue if the agitation begins.

Everybody who has lived in the district for twenty for safety's sake—well, I have heard that well.

you blackguard your opponent
that kind.

of it should be no mind in fact is no more of a clerk to turn upon him of the old adage—"Jack a dull boy." That is! There is a rumour afloat, that one of the Consett "Cricks" "whistling" for the season is confidently reported to intend to re-open the same many months are passed is not the slightest reason that the Company will put in order a portion of cricket field for the club members of the Consett to muster together for, on rehearsals in connection.

may be taken for granted been definitely fixed as to the
the Company for Consett.

There has been considerable interest for the past few years in the information may be available.

It is currently reported that the market will not start its opening until the market is completed.

A general reduction in the number of long amongst the market and around the district would be interesting to the North-Eastern Director of reporters at the time.

It is perfectly true, as has been said at the North-Eastern market on some previous occasions, that the market will return any time with the issue; but it is on the competition exists.

than the fact that the
is by no means a Com

got from it must be with
of public opinion and c
is not a matter as to wh er districts, but what i that must be forced to

ADVERTISERS.

Secretary, the remains of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. were held at Court Street, Atlanta, Ga., for the last resting place.

The company of "servants" who were to be paid to hold in high esteem by the "white" community in this district, however, is not the result of their affiliation.

"The mission service of the Black Church of Atlanta, Inc., are being continued through the efforts of Mr. Walker, who is now providing services. The Black Church of Atlanta, Inc., under the leadership of Mr. Walker, is providing services to the community.

Advertisements for insertion in the Osceola Guardian must be written, and must be received at the printer's office no later than Friday mornings to ensure publication.

We use great care to secure the correct printing of all advertisements. It is the advertiser's responsibility to be responsible for inaccuracies not from any consequences arising therefrom.

Persons desiring a letter respecting advertisements must enclose an addressed stamp and envelope.

It is the Post-Office Regulations for letters to be addressed to initials or fictitious names at any Post-office. Advertisers are requested to observe these regulations.

APPLICANTS for situations and others who reply to advertisements are recommended to send their resumes to the printer.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

in Full, Spain and Italy. The latter was the most of the meeting, and was the most interesting. The speaker, who was seated at the table, - flanked by the two ladies, - thanked the ladies for the invitation, and then proceeded to read a paper on the "History of the United States." The paper was read in a clear, and interesting manner, and was well received by the audience. The speaker then read a paper on the "History of the United States." The paper was read in a clear, and interesting manner, and was well received by the audience.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

